. . . And all the men and women merely players . . . '
pushing towards perfection
yet playing their parts blindly for they only see the importance of themselves.

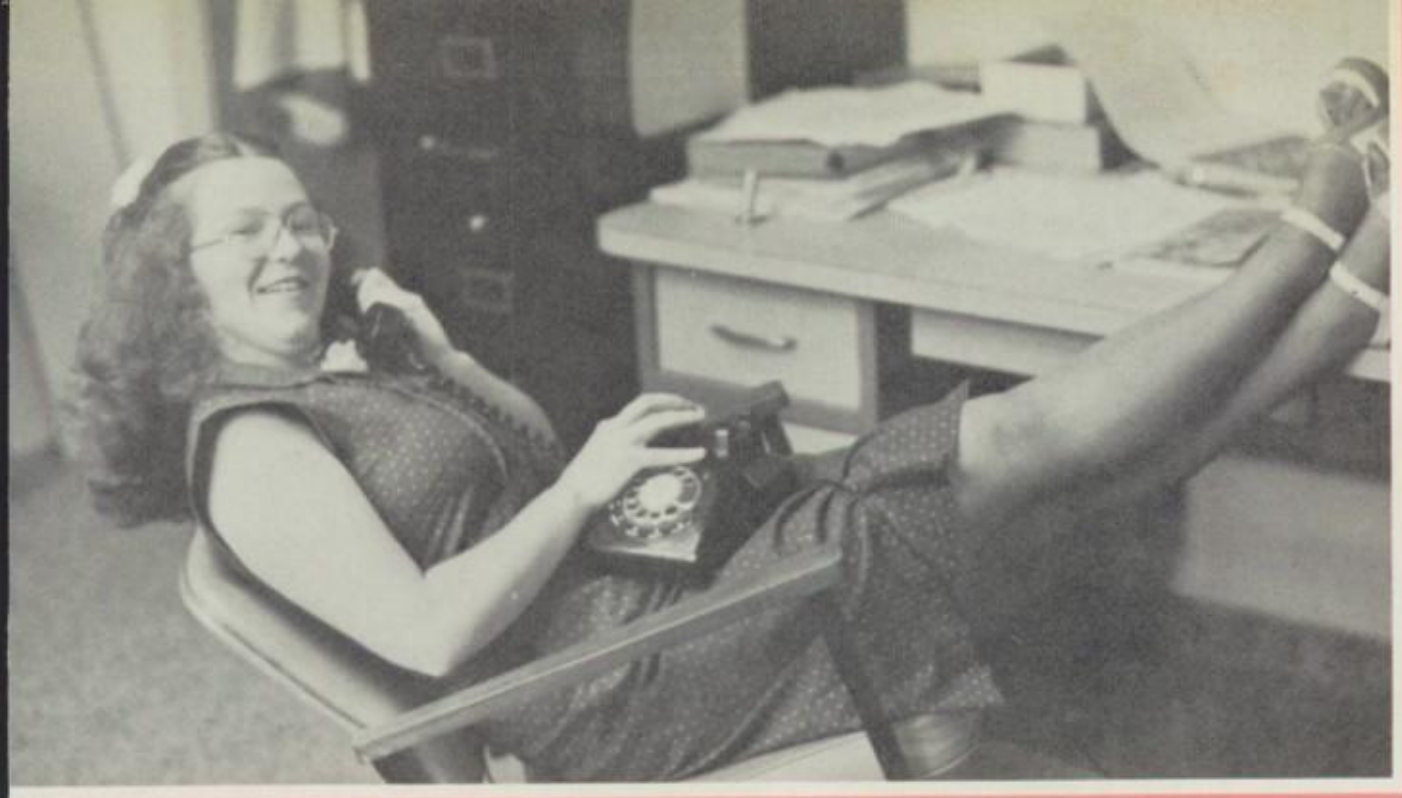
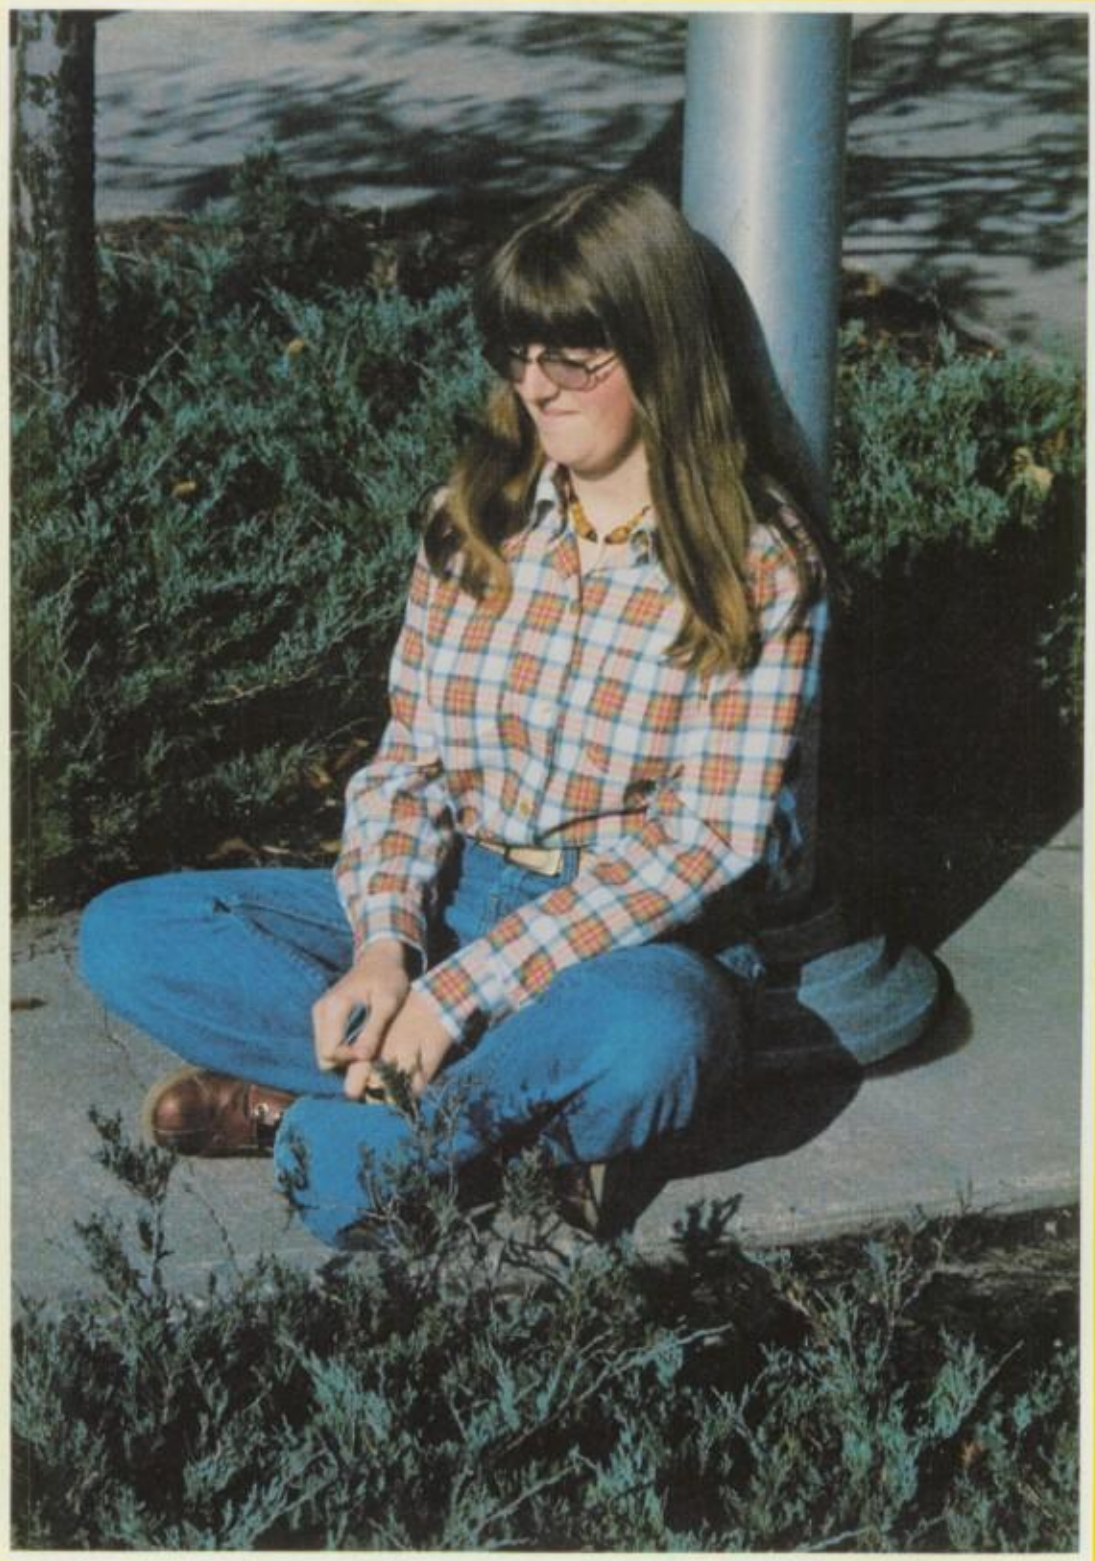
'. . . They have their exits and their entrances . . .'
carefully timed,
and filled with controlled emotions.
They go unforeseen by intrigued audiences.





. . . And one man in his time plays many parts,' . . .
Some that are easily acted out,
like pain, unhappiness and frustrations.
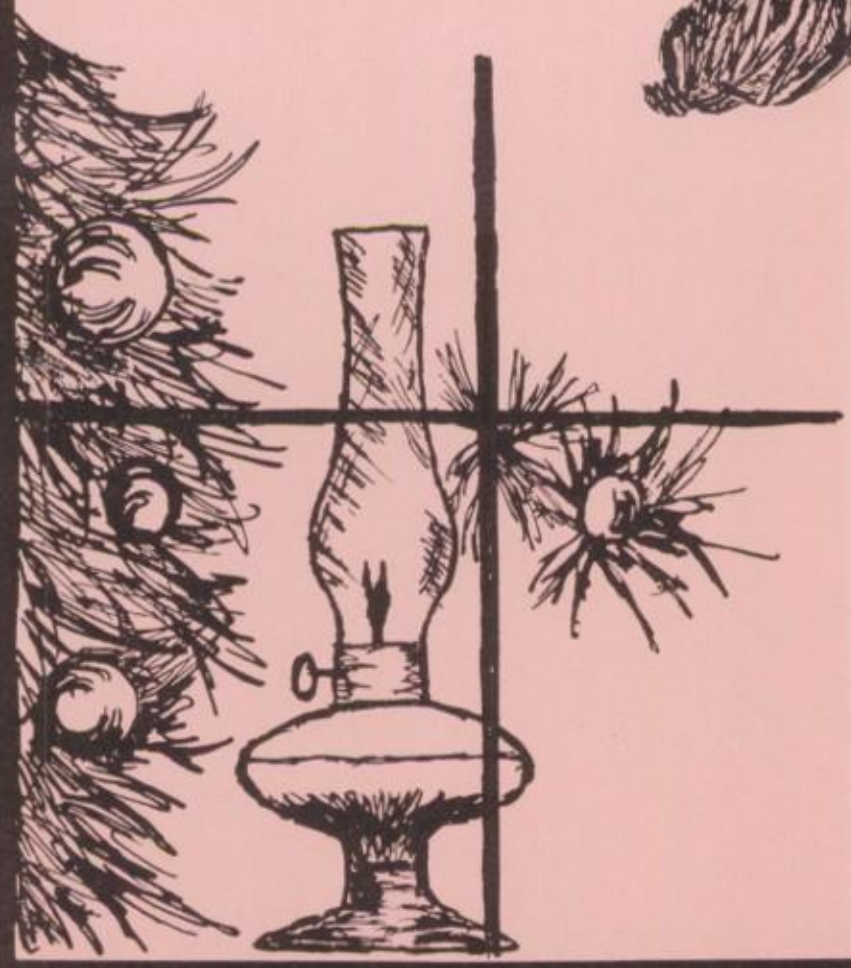
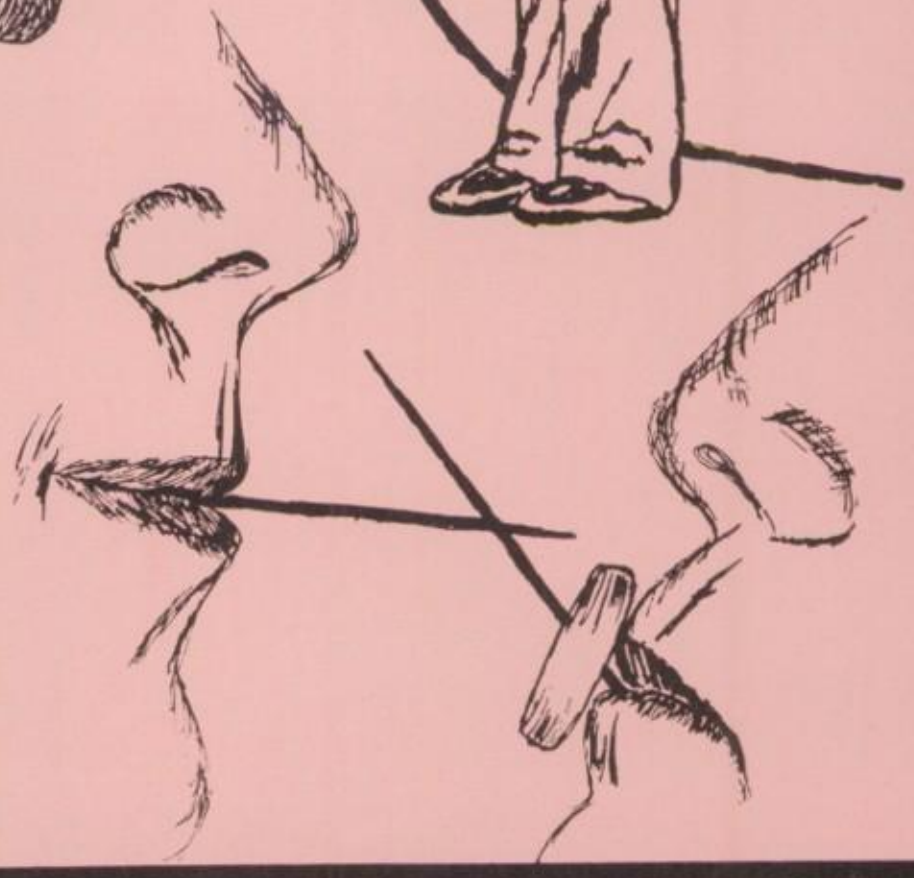
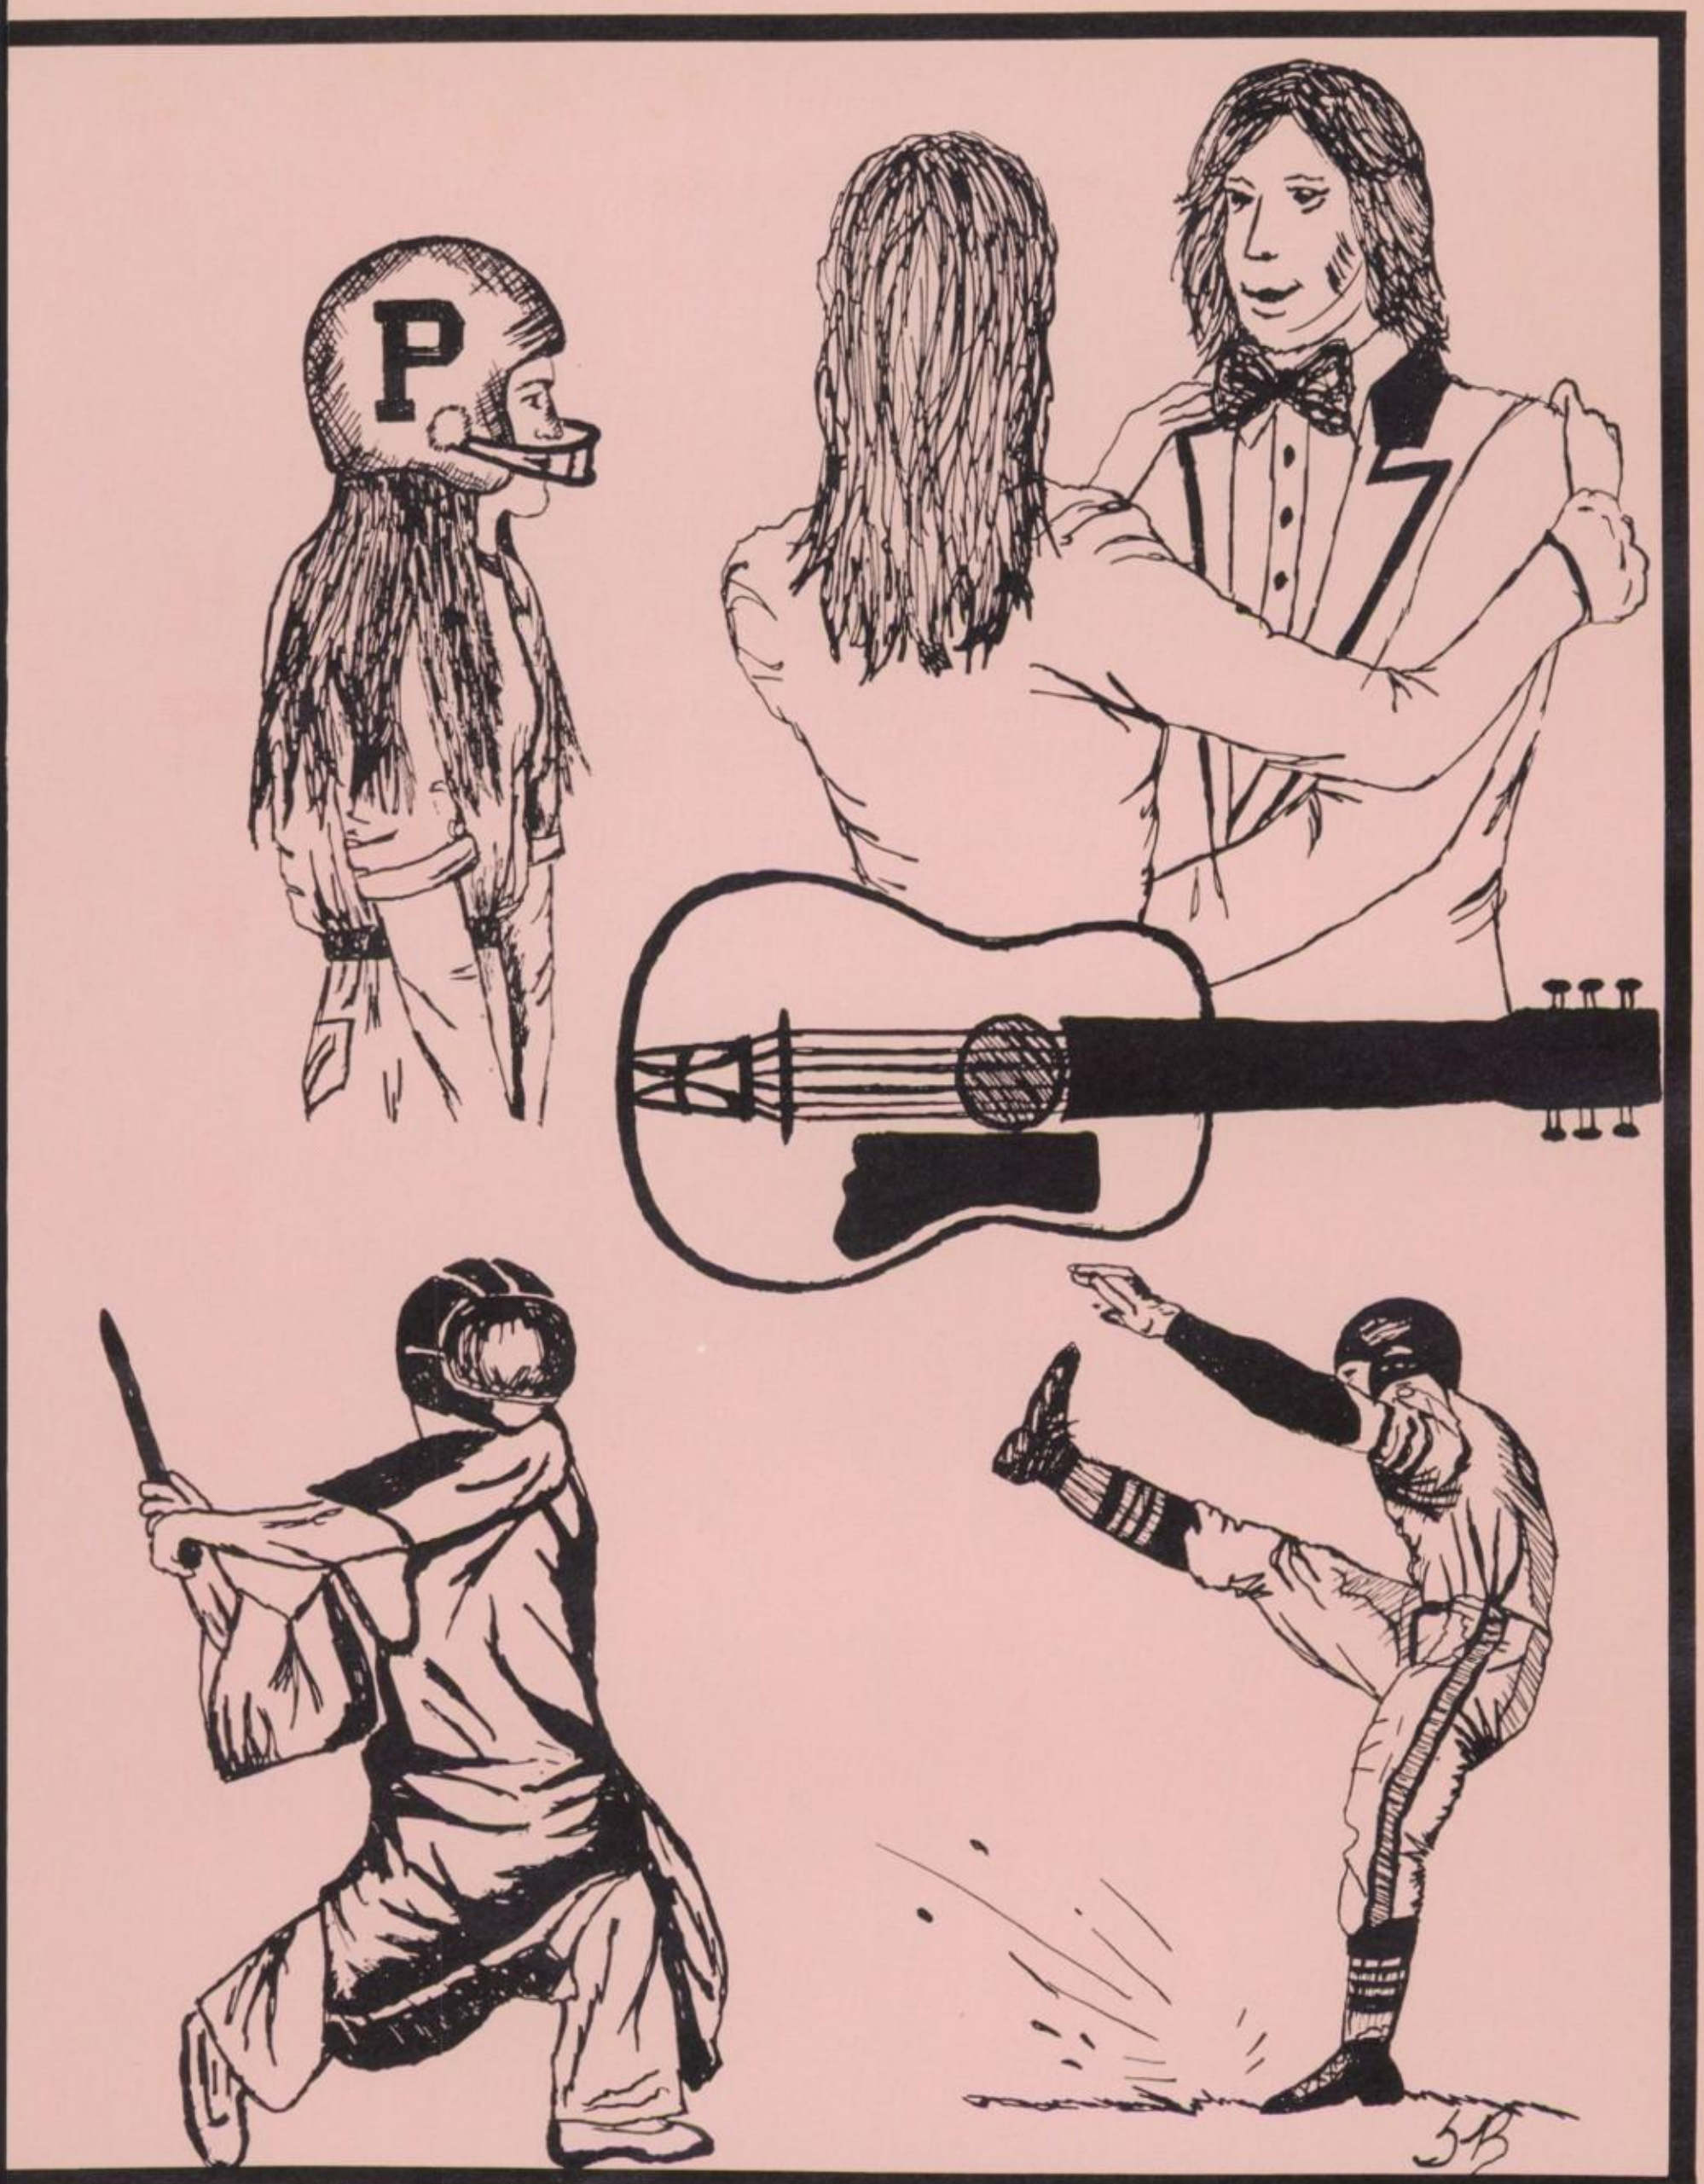
But others are less easily portrayed-- endurance, wisdom, and a will to make what is good, better.

ACT I

Activities







P

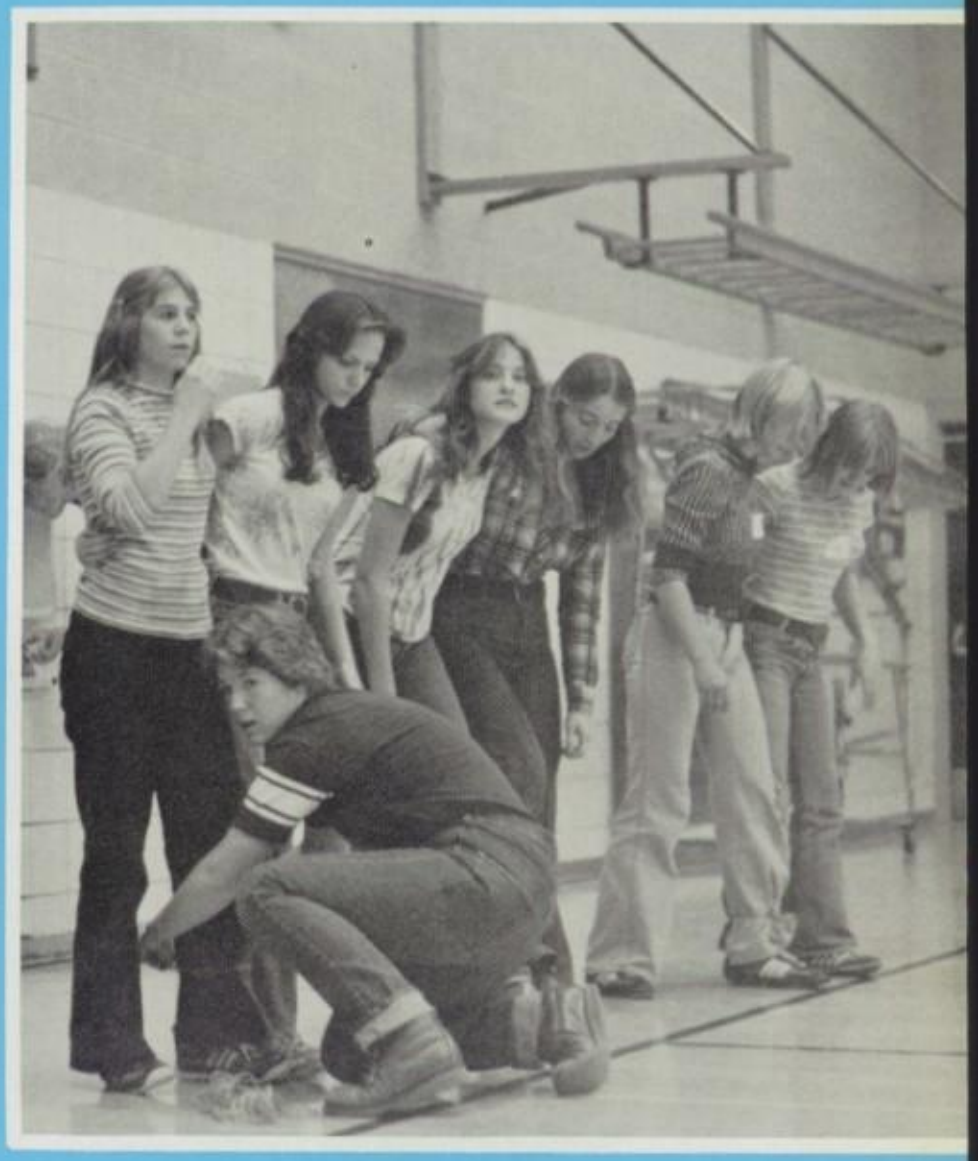
Galaxies Of Spirit



Senior: It looks as though you Juniors ran away with the Field Day this year.

Junior: We did, all right. These were some crazy events this time, like that Bean Run and the Lifesaver Pass.

Senior: And who would have thought of an Egg-in-Mouth Race? That was wild.

Soph: We weren't too far out of it. Remember we were tied at the end of the indoor events with the Juniors until they won the float competition and the attendance at the game.

Senior: I was surprised at how loud everybody was. It was great.

Junior: But the Class of '79 is definitely #1!

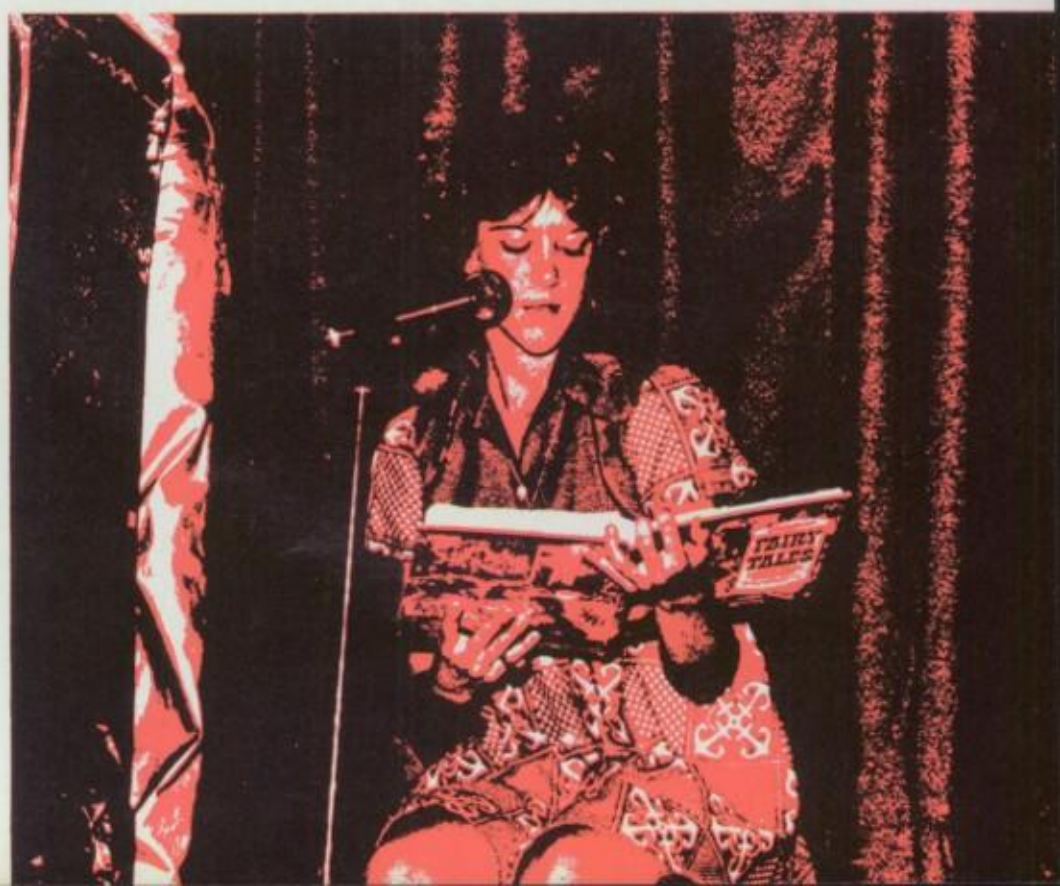
Karla Reigns In Space

Steve: We really had a talented Court this year.

Amy: The theme was out of this world, not to mention the appearances of R2-D2 and C-3PO.

Steve: Speaking of robots, those girls looked as if they were frozen stiff on Friday night, but the excitement kept them warm.

Amy: It was a relief to everyone when Mr. Hamilton announced Karla Kent as Homecoming Queen of 1977.



HOMECOMING COURT: Kay Sanderson, Junior Representative; Kris Shriver; Jayne Sloan; Mary Denhof; Beth Deur; Alice Eckert; Karla Kent; Mary Lois Moss, Sophomore Representative.

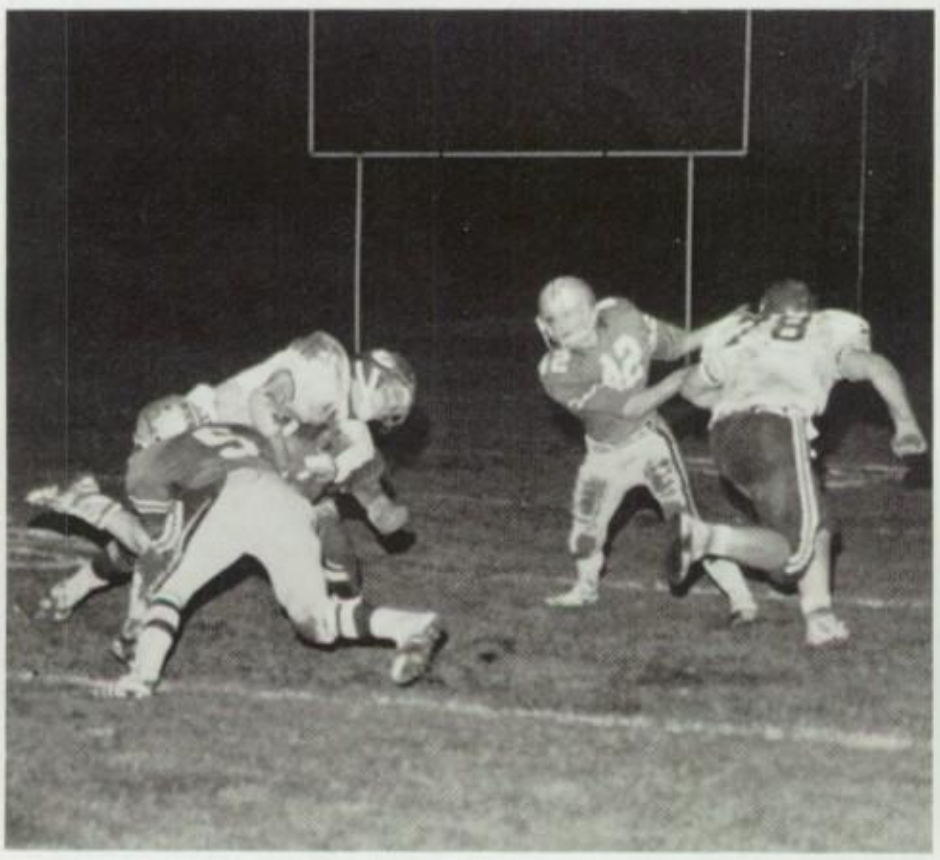
Activities In Orbit

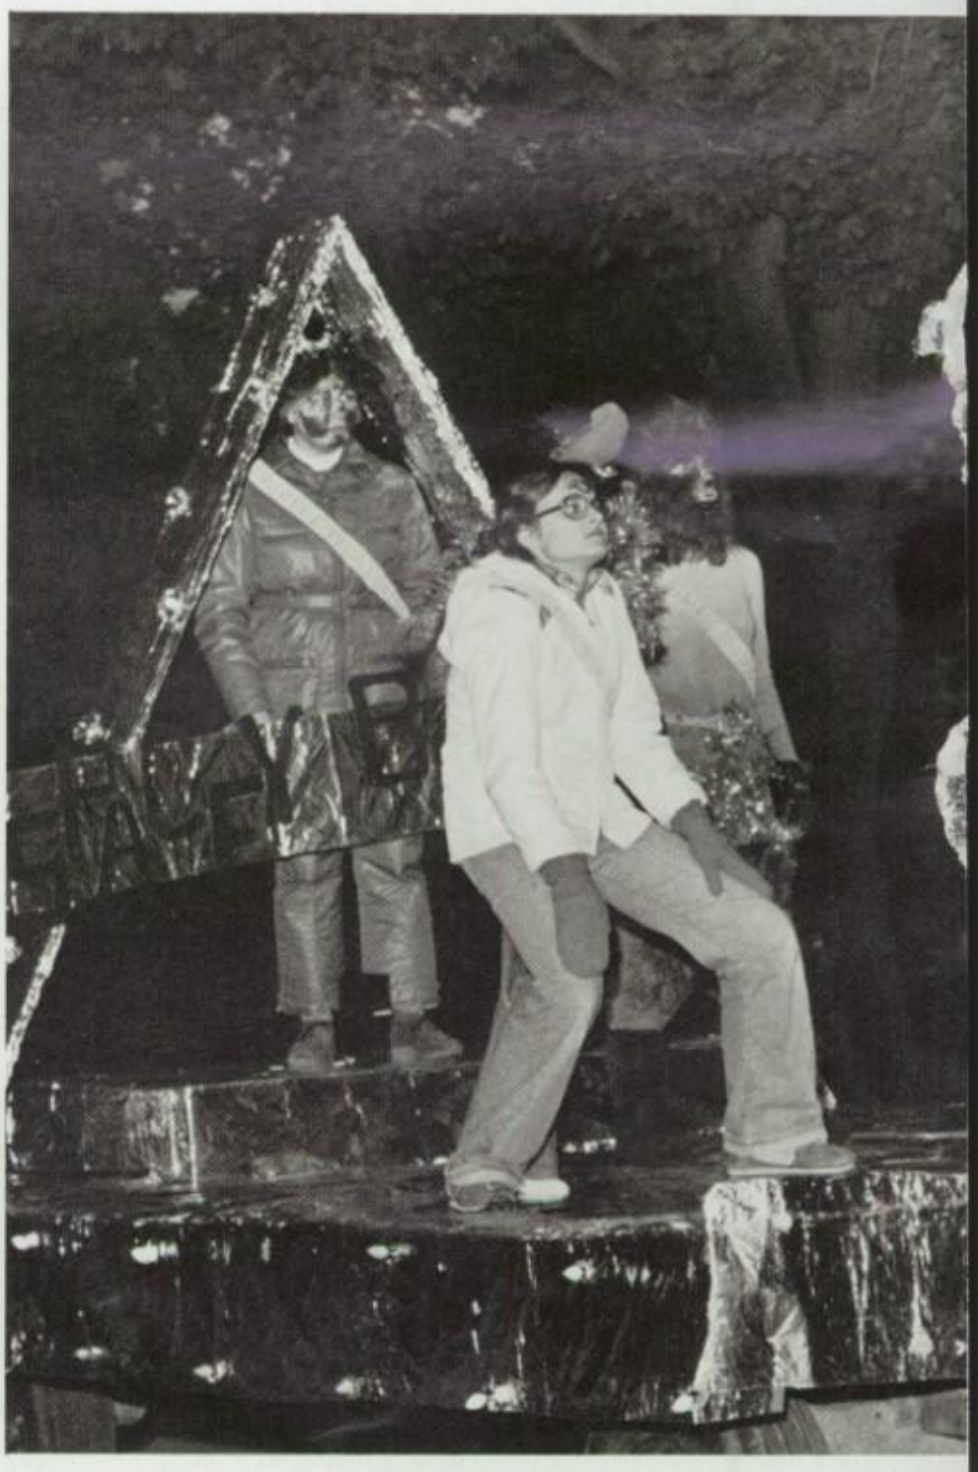
Fred: Do you know whose float won? I heard that they were all pretty good.

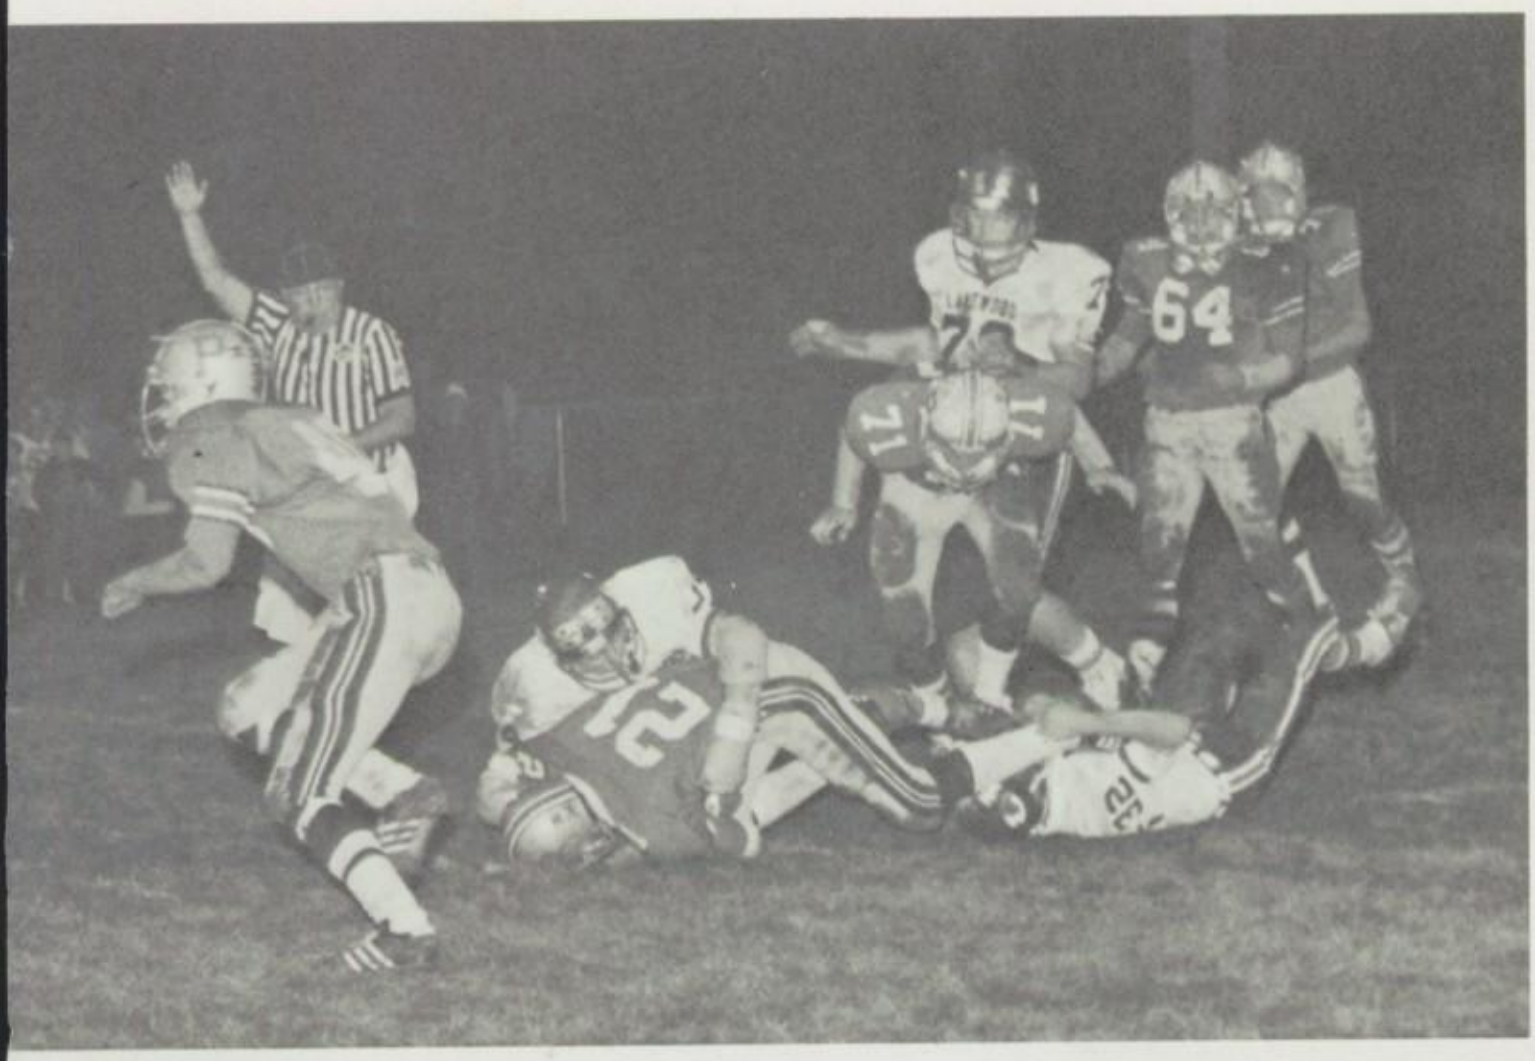
Ralph: Yeah, I saw them at the game. I'd have to agree with the judges: the Juniors had the best float. The Sophomores got 2nd place, but all the others were good also.

Fred: Speaking of the game, who won? I was here helping with the reception afterward.

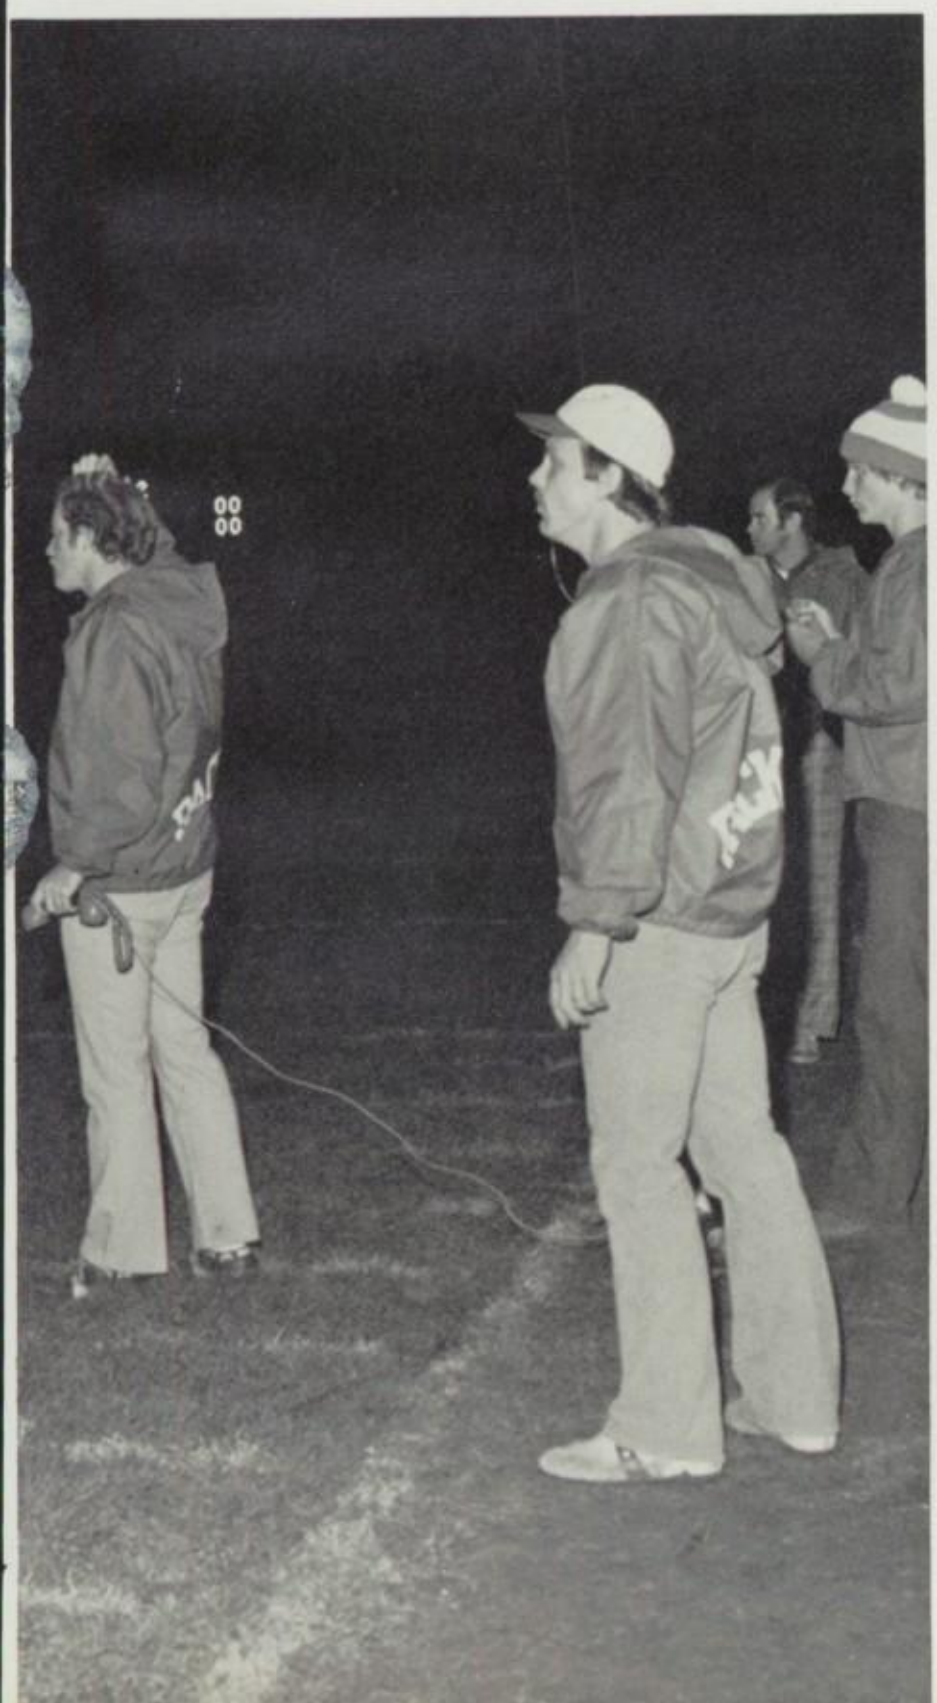
Ralph: It was really close; but we lost in overtime, 3-0.

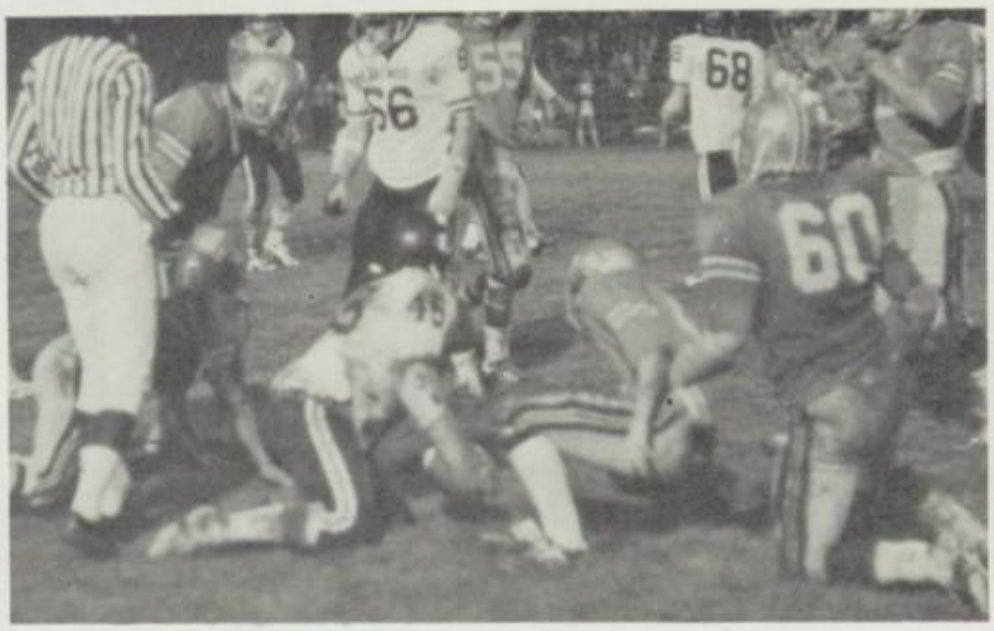






F.H.S.





Fun 'N Frolic

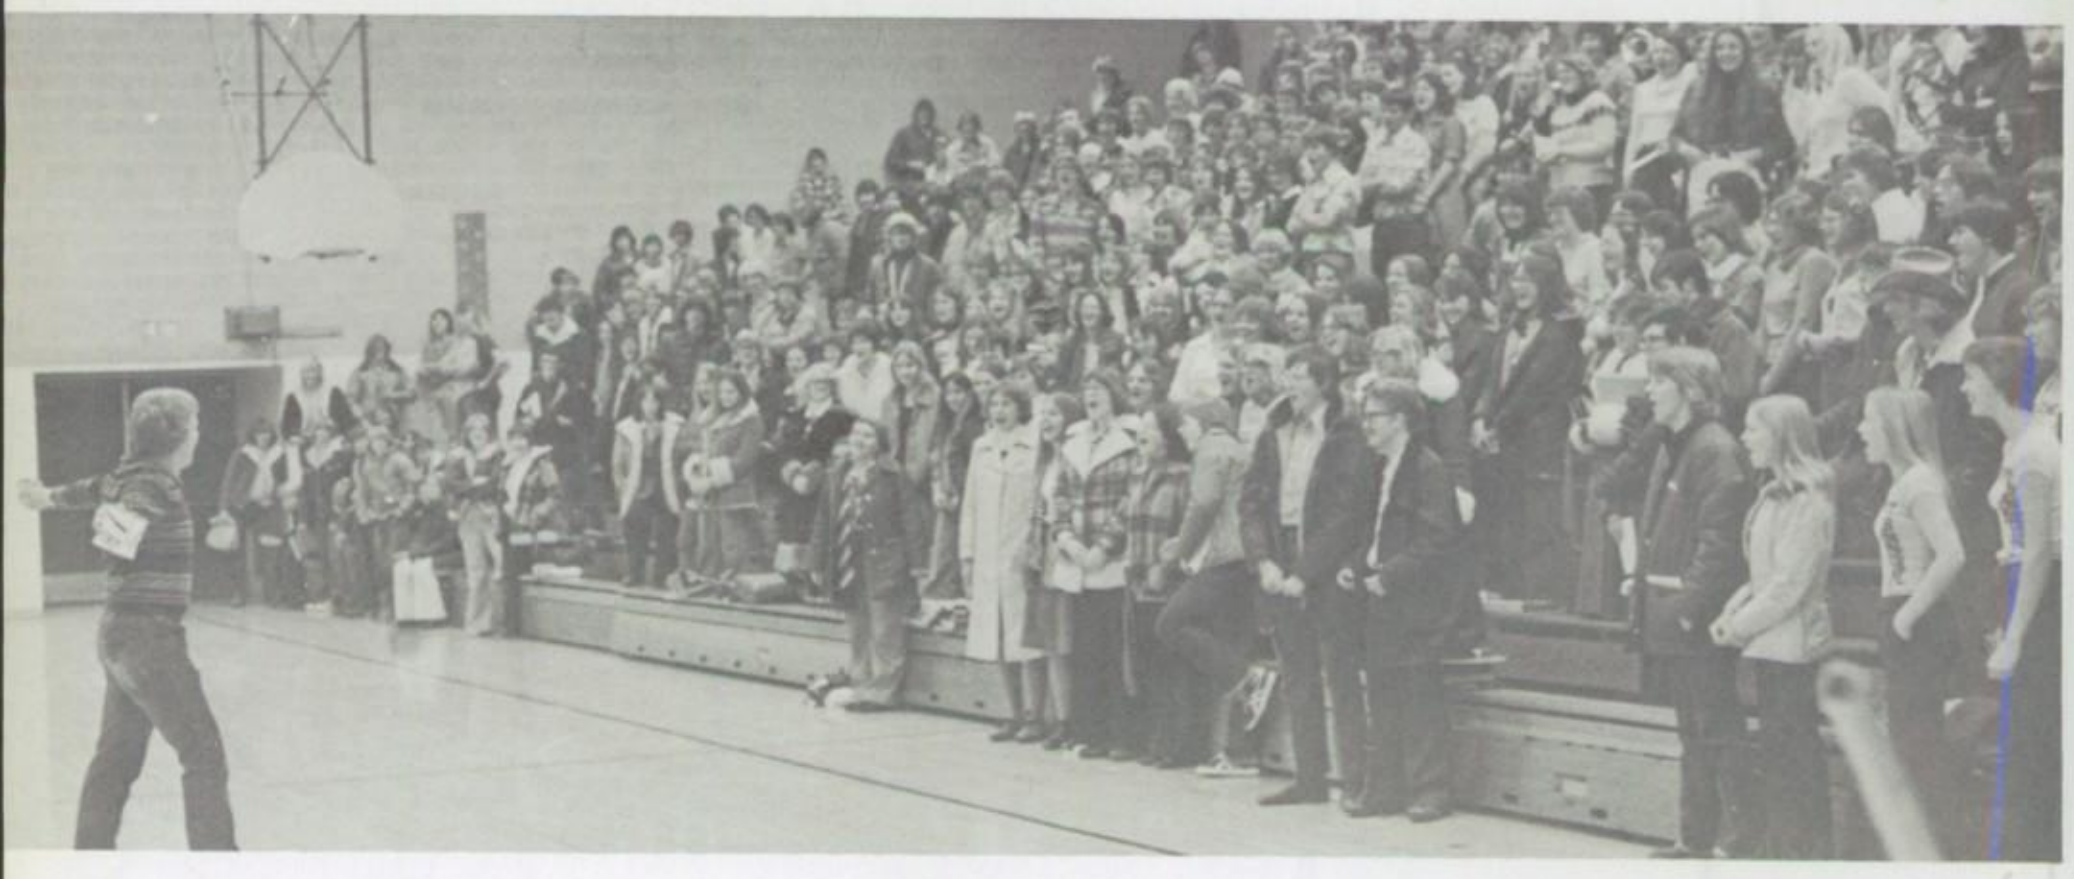
Joe: Didn't we have a pep assembly yesterday?

Sue: Yes, the pep band played, and the cheerleaders did some cheers. Why weren't you there?

Joe: I had a bad cold. I heard something about Mr. Fosheim's doing an old cheer.

Sue: That's right. He got in front of everyone and led a cheer they used to do a while ago. Everyone liked it. Too bad you missed it.

Joe: Well, maybe he'll do it at another pep assembly.



Merry Players

Karen: Wasn't that Christmas Assembly something else? The band did a great job on the medley of songs.

Jayne: Those angels, elves, and Joseph and Mary were good, too.

Karen: But there was some tradition in it too, like when the teachers sang Christmas carols.

Jayne: Then Student Council ended the assembly by wishing everyone a Merry Christmas with cards. What a way to start Christmas vacation!

Having A Beach Ball

Beth: Do you remember who made the most money for the booths at the Mid-Winter Festival?

Meredy: I think it was the High School Student Council. Did you see all of the different booths that there were?

Beth: Some of them like the Spook House and crazy ball were really great.

Meredy: But the best booth was the seniors' Love-o-matic.

Beach Boogie

Mark: Who was the band for the Mid dance this year?

Diane: I think it was Bad Habits. The dance was pretty good, too. It seemed like a lot of people were there, and they enjoyed it.

Mark: It was neat when Cal and Rhonda started a dance, and the rest of the kids joined them.

Diane: All in all, I think that the Mid-Winter dance of 1978 was one of the best that Student Council had ever put on during the year.

Royal Sunshine

Tom: Sue, do you remember what the theme was for the Mid?

Sue: How could anyone forget? Surfin Safari! We had to get up on stage with our shorts and swim suits and boogie around.

Tom: That's right. The MC's were Jan Bode and Andy Gerdes.

Sue: Remember how hyper everyone was before the crowning?

Tom: Everyone was relieved when Cal and Rhonda were announced as King and Queen.

Expressing Themselves

Julie: Cathy, are you going to be in the talent show next year?
Cathy: I don't know yet. It was a lot of fun being in it this year.
Julie: And good experience, too. I think that even the people who did not place got something out of it.
Cathy: Yes, and there was so much variety.
Julie: I think that this year's talent show had more talent in it than any other year.

New People, New Programs

Mr. Mathers: "Miss Smith, will you bring in the list of people who are in the two new programs, Horticulture and Diesel Mechanics?"

Miss Smith: "Yes, but first, Mr. Bont, Assistant Director and the Trade and Industry Supervisor, Mr. Osborn, would like to talk to you. They say it's important."

Mr. Mathers: "Please send them in. Also get Holton on the phone. There are still some things that must be discussed since this is their first year at the school."

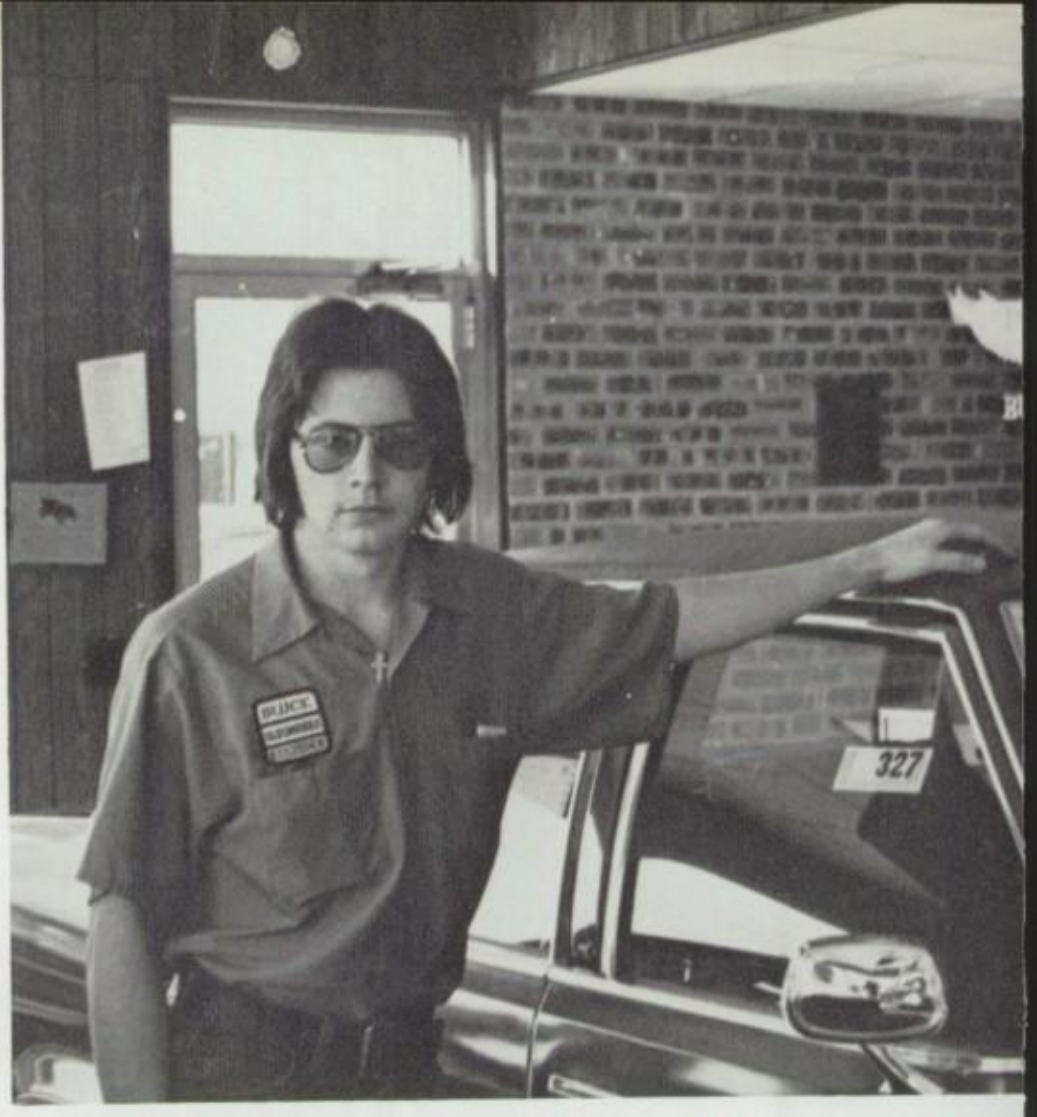
Work, Work, Work.

Dave: Hey, Tom, aren't you on Co-op in the morning? I thought that someone had said something about your working at Deur-Speet.

Tom: Yes, working out there breaks the monotony of classes all day. It gives me a chance to get out into the business world and meet all kinds of people.

Dave: I know what you mean. I'm on Co-op in the afternoon at Reber's, and I like the way that it's working out for me. It gives me a chance to earn some money, too.

Tom: What high school senior doesn't need that?



MORNING CO-OP: ROW 1: S. Frens, C. Momany, T. Stariha, L. Scott. ROW 2: T. Wright, B. Hawkins, L. Winchel, J. Pearson. ROW 3: G. Dodson, J. Volz, M. Witte, S. Zacharias.

Helping Out

Beth: Tim, why don't I ever see you around school in the morning? Do you go to the Voc School?

Tim: No, I'm Mr. Tompkin's aide for his gym classes in the morning at the Junior High.

Beth: I should have known that. I'm a Teacher's Aide, too, only I'm at Daisy Brook. Don't you find yourself learning things from those kids that you never thought you would?

Tim: Yes! Patience and self-control!

TEACHER'S AIDES: K. Lareva, L. Hanson, L. Annis, C. Mauger, R. Dawe.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT CLUB: ROW 1: D. Fowler, J. Ekkel, T. Hansen. ROW 2: B. Crisp, M. Roosinck, S. Woodring, B. Youker.

Studious People

Mary: That new Academic Enrichment Club is really doing a lot for the Junior High.

Andy: The club paid for half the cost of the copy machine for the office as one of their projects. What's Honor Society doing, Donna?

Donna: Well, we don't do any money raising projects, because most people are too busy with studies.

Steve: But we do have induction in the spring when the people become official members.

HONOR SOCIETY: ROW 1: Miss Werner, S. VanHemert, S. Burt, T. Parks, M. Vanderwall, D. Supplee, E. Adair, G. Howarth, J. Webster. ROW 2: N. VanDop, P. Osborn, K. Durkee, C. DeKuiper, V. Pekel, W. Pat: Another year of Student Council, and it looks like everyone survived. I'm surprised, being as busy as we were.

Brad: It's true that we were really involved this year, but Student Council plays a big part in our school. All the social activities that we put on like Homecoming, the Christmas dance, and the Mid: they give the kids something to do.

Pat: And there are the other things that they do, too; like the concession stands, and offering jackets to the students this year, which is something new.

Brad: At any rate, it's clear that Student Council is needed and appreciated by the students of our school.

Kidder's Korner

Brad: I hear you're going to work in the Student Service Center next semester during your study hall.

Wendie: Yes, the one-on-one's should be interesting, and the personal growth is pretty good, too.

Brad: I think the Student Service Center is one of the better areas of our school where kids can learn about themselves as well as the problems of other kids.

Wendie: Working there will be a good experience for me, also. I enjoy helping others with their problems while at the same time learn a few things about myself.

Brad: I think it's a good idea for all schools to have this type of program.

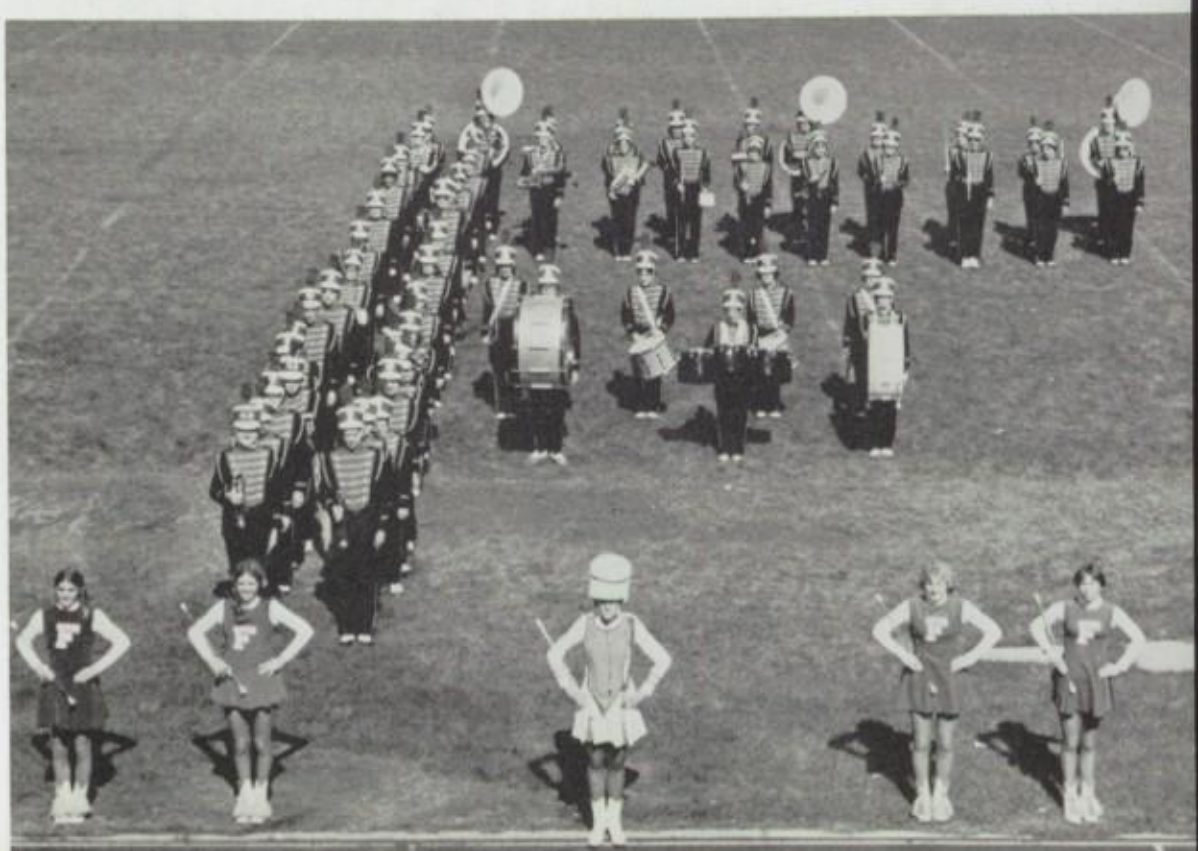
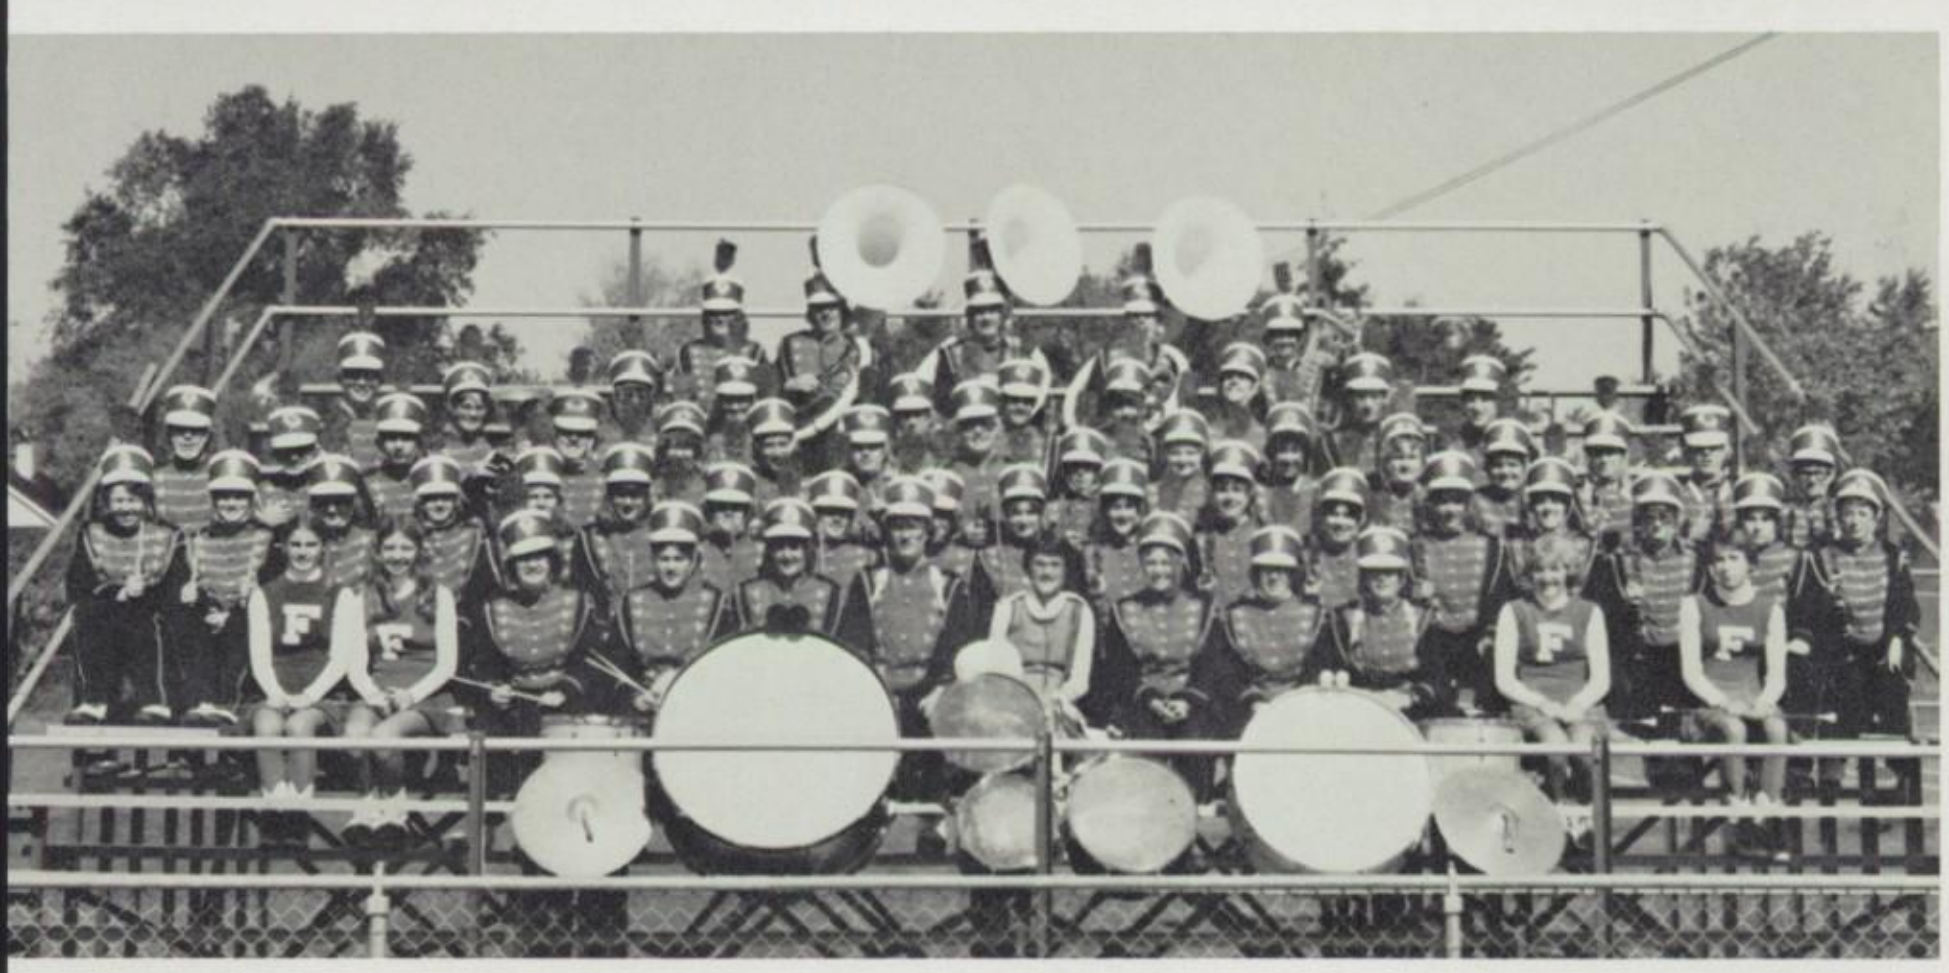
Laird's First

Sue: Wasn't that Band-o-Rama neat?
Beth: Yes! We're doing so many new things this year! The new Jazz Band seems to be going over quite well.
Sue: I play in it, and it's a lot of fun.
Beth: Doesn't it take up a lot of your time to play in things like the Newaygo Marching Invitational along with the Jazz Band?
Sue: I guess so, but it's worth the time that it takes.





H.S. BAND: ROW 1: J. Graham, K. Shriver, M. Vanderwall, M. Swanberg, M. VanKoevering, B. Burgess, N. Vandop, L. Lankhorst, A. Dawe, M. Zerlaut, M. Scott, C. Stevens. ROW 2: S. Sevigny, B. Betts, H. Finer Music II

Marcy: We seem to be doing a lot of entertaining this year.
Mary Jo: Let's see. There has been the Orchestra Festival, and the Christmas, Midwinter, and Spring Concerts.
Marcy: And don't forget the Solo/Ensemble Festival.
Mary Jo: I guess that you're right about the entertaining. I don't mind, though, because other people enjoy listening to the music that we play.

H.S. ORCHESTRA: ROW 1: M. Price, L. Ward, K. Doering, M. Fuller, S. Zahrt, A. Billerbeck. ROW 2: Miss Smith, M. Jacobs, Mr. Laird, D. Rasch.

Student: Where is that concert to be held Mr. Supplee?
Mr. Supplee: The Junior High Band has a concert at Daisy Brook. Don't forget about the Solo-Ensemble Festival. We're the hosts this year. That's for both Jr. High and 7th Grade Bands.
Student: We have more concerts or other festivals, don't we?
Mr. Supplee: Of course. There are the Christmas and Midwinter concerts for both bands along with the Jr. High Band Festival for the Jr. High Band.
Student: And the Old Fashioned Days Parade.
Mr. Supplee: Yes, so let's work on them.

Finer Music I

Kurt: Hmm, let's see. There was the Christmas concert, the Midwinter concert and then the spring concert . . . or was it the Midwinter concert and then the Christmas concert?

Lee: Would you stop mumbling? You had it right the first time, except you forgot the Orchestra and Solo and Ensemble Festivals.

Kurt: That's right. There were just so many that they all seemed to blend into one huge concert. It is a lot different than last year, with our new director Mr. Laird.

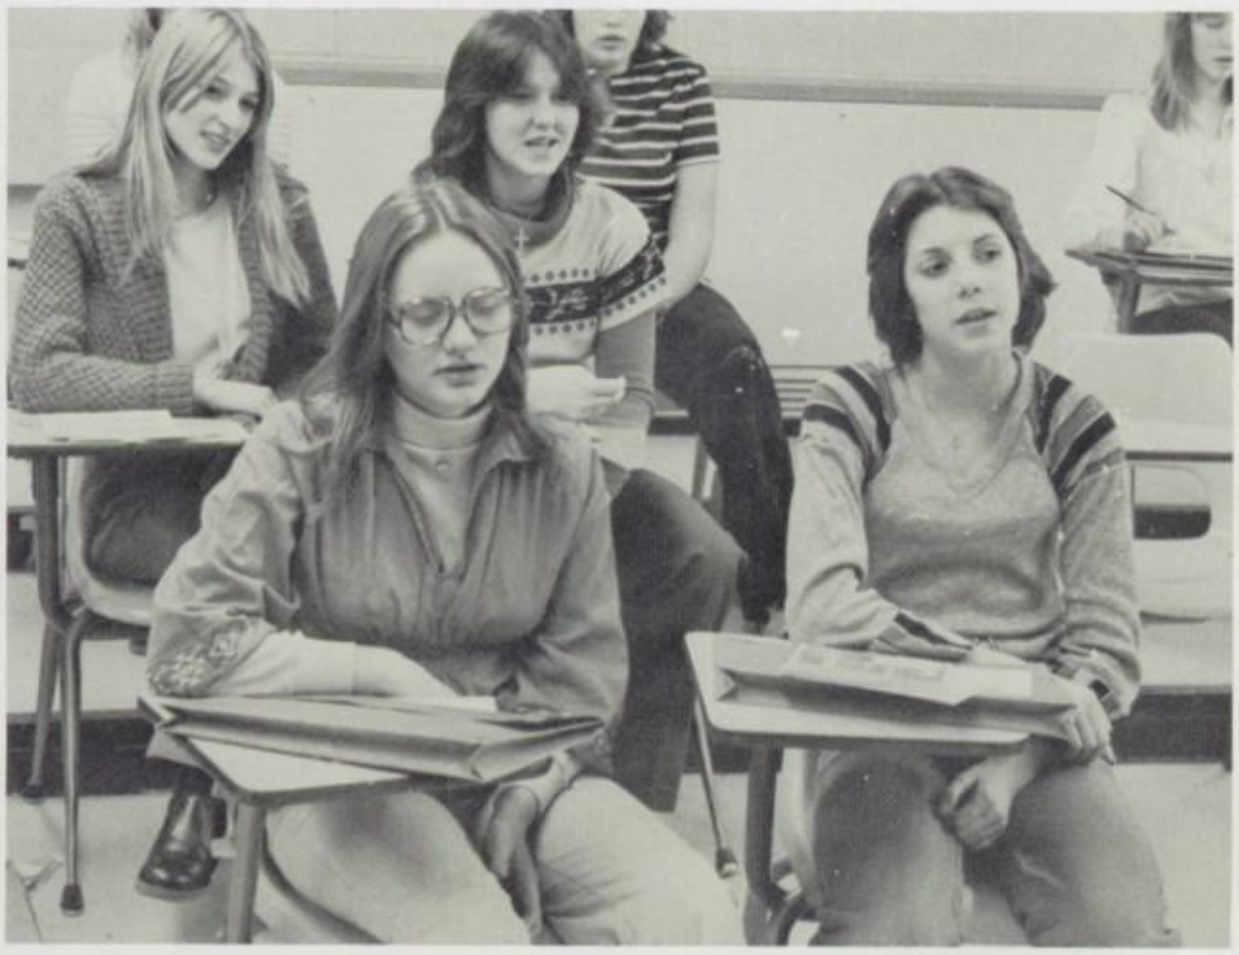
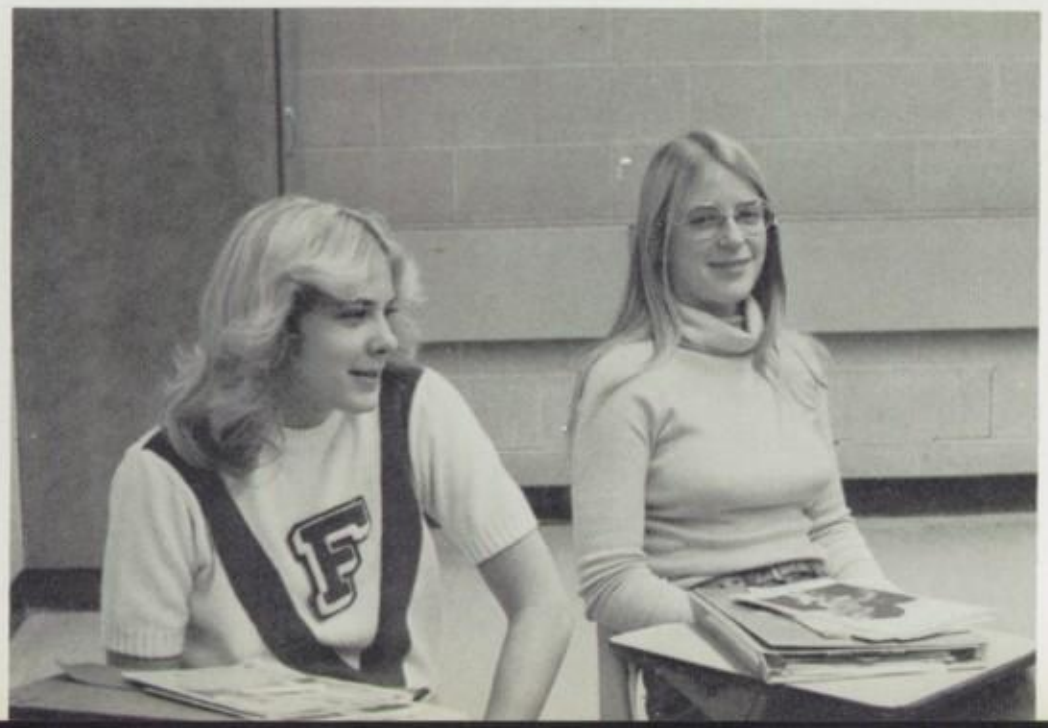
Julie: Are you going to be in choir this year?
Joann: I haven't decided yet. What's on the agenda for this year?
Julie: We're going to be singing at Christmas, and maybe we'll combine with the H.S. choir a couple of times.
Joann: I'll think about it and let you know later.





Sprechen Sie Deutsch?

Crystal: Have you sold all of your candy canes?
Kay: Almost. Maybe all of this money that we're making will go toward the trip to Frankenmuth.
Crystal: Probably, but some of it must go to pay for all of the food that we ate at Oktober Fest, which was a lot.
Kay: I think that I'll remember that for a long time. The dancing was really different, not to mention the speeches.
Crystal: Those Germans seem to make the best out of life.

Helen: Yes, but this time I'll have to work for only a little while. More people are participating.
Joni: I like the way that we're revising the Junior High Student Council Constitution.
Helen: It should mean more to us when we're done.

Artists In Action

Lori: Did you see the picture that the Art Club painted in the Art room? Wasn't it of Colleen Krim?

Linda: Yes, it turned out well. They are doing a lot of things this year. I think that they're having a dance sometime in January.

Lori: They don't really need the money, do they?

Linda: I don't know, but I'm sure that if they have money, they'll spend it sometime this year.

"π" Anyone?

Judy: Are you working at the bake sale on Tuesday?

Jane: I guess so. We have to raise money so that we can go out to eat at a restaurant.

Judy: I like making dinners after school better, though. Home cooking always seems to taste better.

Jane: That's what Home Ec. Club is all about. Learning to make a better home is what we try to do.

Viveka: I won't be traveling as much as you did, but hopefully I will be involved in the school. I like the United States and its schools.
Steve: I hope you learn as much as I did.

Choir — H-m-m-m-m-m

Maryann: Are you coming to see the Christmas concert that the H.S. choir is putting on?
Mark: No, but maybe I can make it to another one. What are some of the other ones that you have coming up?
Maryann: Well, we do some at the elementary schools, and give our spring concert; and then our big event in March is the Tri-River Music Festival.
Mark: I'll try to make it to some of them.

Una Fiesta De Español

Peggy: Did you go to the Spanish Club dinner on Monday?
Julie: Yes, and I ended up washing dishes. It was worth it, though.
Peggy: It's going to be more fun eating food that we don't have to prepare when we go out to a Spanish restaurant.

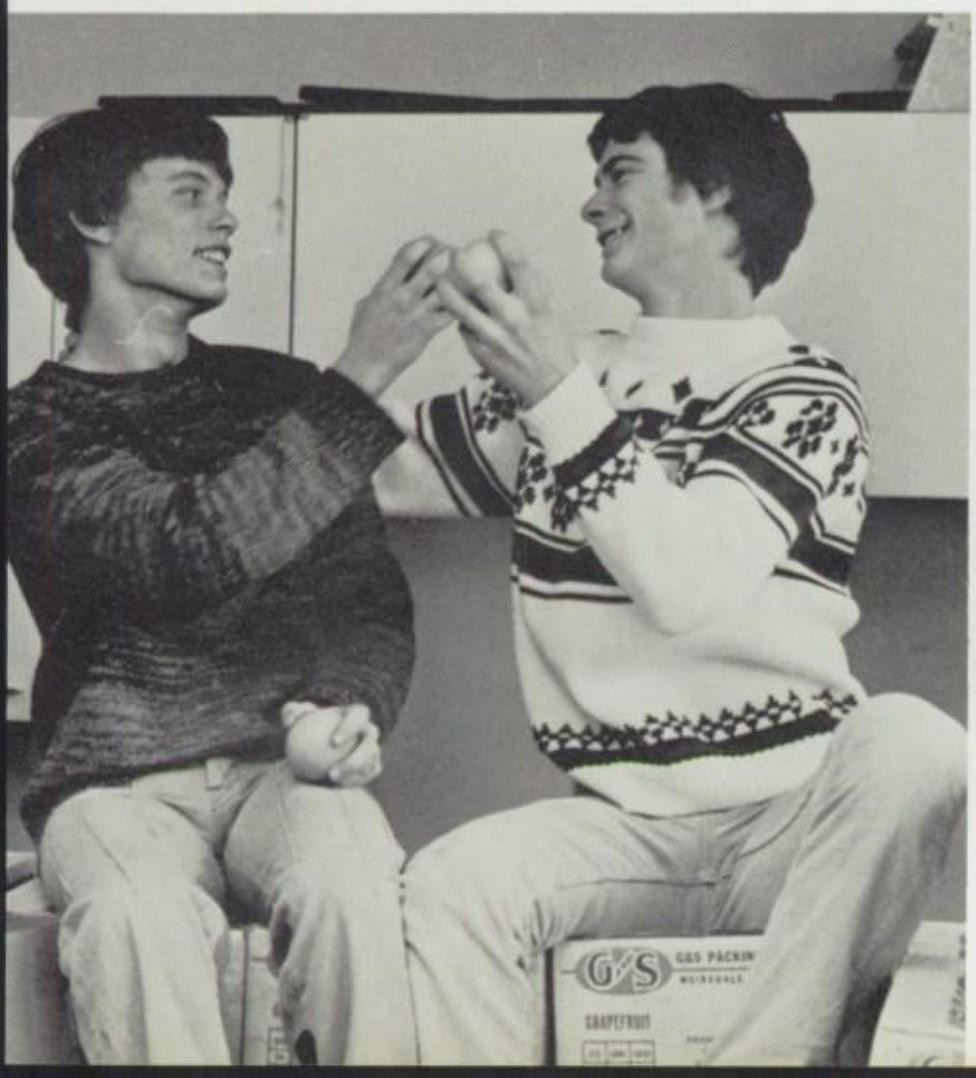
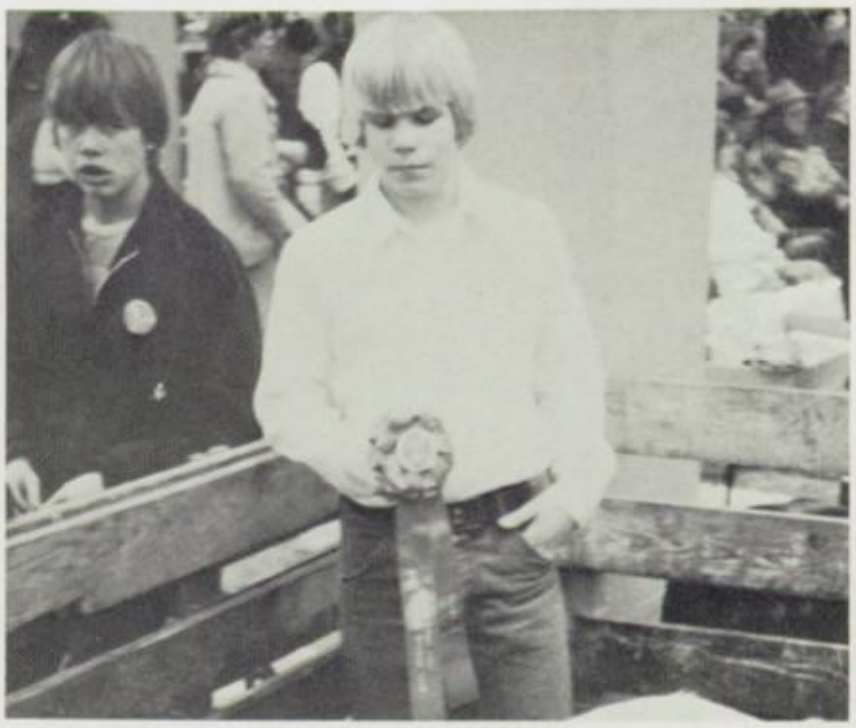
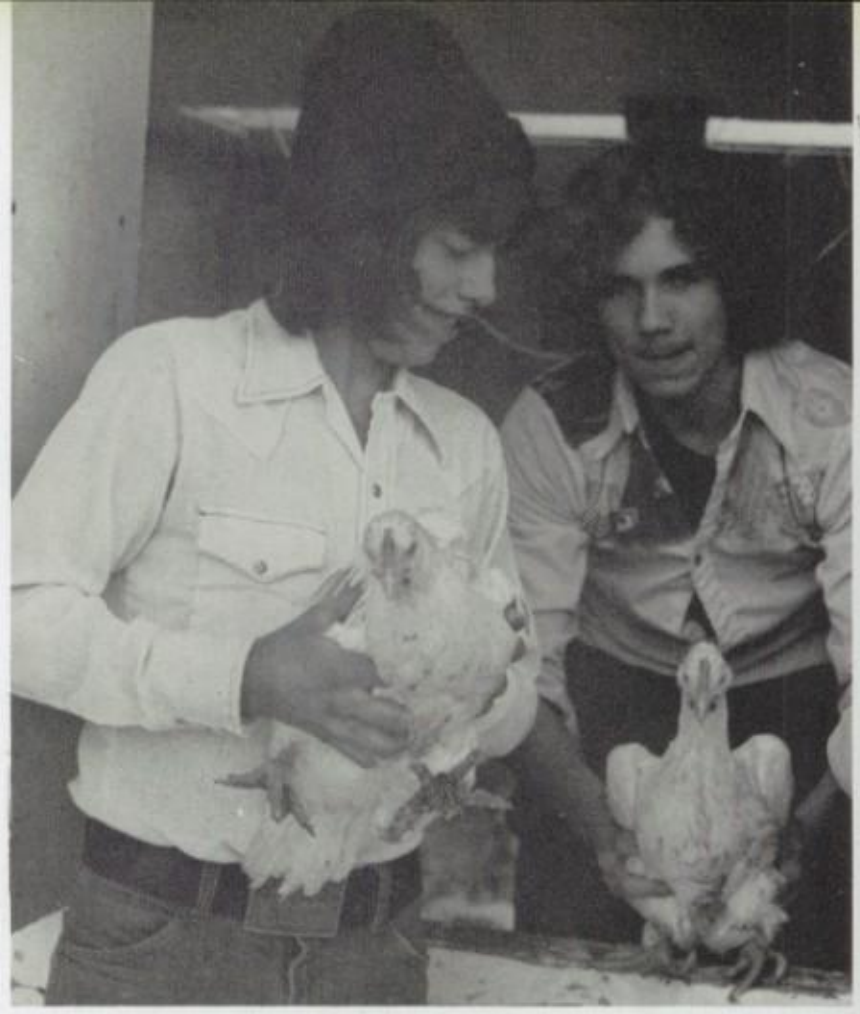
Gail: Did you sell any of your cows at West Michigan last weekend?
Chuck: Yes, and I got a pretty good price, too.
Gail: That weekend went almost as well as the fruit that we sold.
Chuck: The dance this next week should go off pretty well. I hope a lot of people attend it. That way there won't be any problem in getting to Leadership camp this summer.
Gail: That should be fun.





Young Sprouts



Bill: Wasn't that livestock show at Grand Rapids great?

Rob: Yes, it was terrific selling the animals that we've raised, after showing them off.

Bill: The Broiler Project was great, too. Taking our chickens down to Lansing with different schools was a good learning experience.

Pat: Yes, aren't we having it printed this afternoon?
Becky: Yes. Even though the paper is new, we try to cover everything and make it interesting. Your articles usually do a good job.
Pat: We try to include at least something for everything.

Quiet Please!

Sue: I have loads of homework, but I guess that I'll just have to do it when I get home.
Mary: Isn't it rough doing without a study hall just to be a librarian? Sue: I guess so, but we learn a lot of useful things while we check and shelve the books, and help the students and teachers locate materials.
Mary: I guess that without student librarians, the libraries just would not be as organized as they are.
Sue: Yes, and speaking of organization, did you know your name is on the list of overdue books?

Office Workers

Pam: Did you file the new students' records? I would have, but I was typing the announcements.

Betty: Yes, but one of the teachers wanted to know something about him, so I took the records to the teacher.

Pam: I also have to take a message to one of the fourth hour classes. One of the parents called in for a student. This day sure has been busy!

Betty: Sometimes I wonder if this office work is worth giving up a study hall. But I guess it's good experience for a lot of different jobs.

Pam: Sure, there will be lot of things that we learned in office work that we will be able to use after High School.

Intermission

Intermission. A time for small talk. Each year the Mogul Staff tries to find the unique qualities of that year-- to capture in picture and word the special events of that year which will help you to remember in the days ahead. Each year the task is different and the year too soon a part of the past. We, staff and advisor, hope that what you see on these pages of the 1978 Mogul is a part of your year and will become a meaningful part of your future and your past.

Mr. Schattler
Advisor

Not many Fremont High Students are aware that "Mogul" is an original name for our yearbook. The Senior Class of 1915 named the yearbook "Mogul" because they wanted it to be the most valued record of high school life. Mogul may be translated as excellency, which is also something that every Mogul Staff has tried to achieve in their book. The Staff of 1978 has combined these two objectives with one of its own; to personalize this book as Fremont High School to the best of our ability. I feel that we have somewhat achieved these goals and hope that you enjoy our book.

John: Don't you think it's kind of neat to be able to support our team in an original way?

Strong Team, Strong Players

John: Four wins and three losses in Conference gave Fremont third place.
Mike: Also, they had five people named to the All-Conference team. I can see why Randy Tanis was the Most Valuable, overall and for defense, and Brian McDaniel, with 1,016 yards, was the Most Valuable offense player.
John: All of those really show the strength of the team.

Fan #1: Even though they only had two wins, I think the JV's will strengthen next year's team.

Fan #2: They tried something new by starting 22 different people to prepare more for next year.

Fan #1: Those Freshman played a good season by posting a record of 4-3-1.

Fan #2: I'd have to say that you're right; we can expect more good players in the future.

Young Show Talent

Kathy: The 7th grade girls have really improved throughout their entire season. Joanie Mudgett was most improved and Jenny Hendrie was most valuable player. Leading rebounders were Monica Hill and Michelle Henley. 4-8 is a good season for beginners.

Paula: Our 8th grade girls ended with a 6-5 season. Sharon Grove got in there for rebounds and Patti Tibbe was the most improved for the season.

Dribble Through To Success

Coleen: Well, it's been another super year for the girls' Varsity Basketball team.

Gail: And to think that they went all season undefeated and broke every record possible.

Coleen: Wendy Anderson made the most points in a single game, and Judy Moon made the most rebounds. She was the only sophomore on the team.

Gail: All but four, the four seniors, will be able to return next year.

Set It Up!

Paula: Are you going out for volleyball again next year?

Kerry: I think so. After all of the improvements last season, I think that we should do really well.

Kerry: Speaking of work, Sandy Sevigny and Rhonda Dawe did a lot of it as our Varsity Managers.

Rebound

Kelly: Well, I guess next year we're up on the Varsity team in girls' basketball.

Melissa: Even though last season was a super one, I'm kind of looking forward to moving up.

Kelly: We've gained a lot of experience on the JV level, and next year we'll see how much of that we have retained.

Melissa: JV was fun and a lot of work, too, but that was what made us a winning team.

Put A Little Spike Into Your Life

Wendy: Judy, doesn't that girl over there look familiar to you?

Judy: Isn't she from Kenowa Hills Volleyball? They were the toughest team this year but we beat them in 3 games.

Wendy: I remember that now. Do you remember the party at the end of the year? That was a riot!

Judy: Yes, but next season should be just as good since we're only graduating one senior.

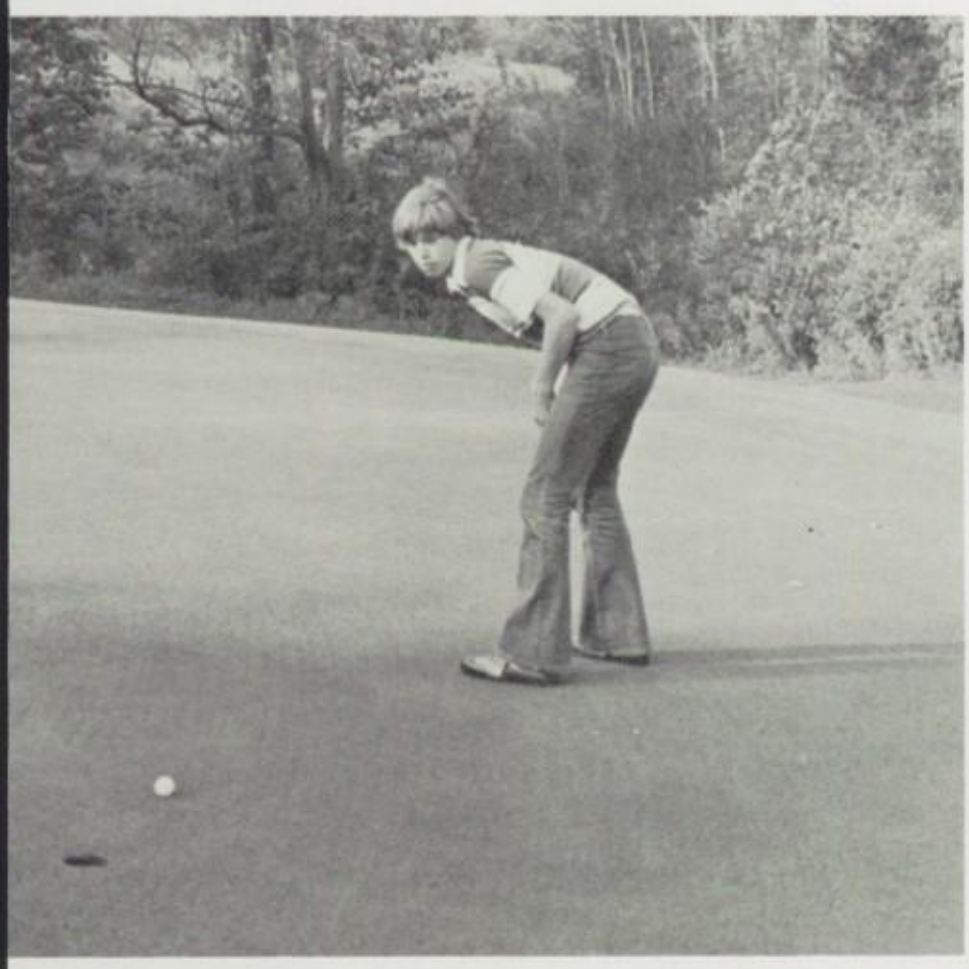
Ninth In State

Hack: With a record of 18-3 plus a ninth place in State, I'd say we did quite well, wouldn't you?

Cal: Definitely. But don't forget the three way tie for first in the league and the course records we broke. And something new: a girl on the team.

Hack: We can expect more of the same in years to come since Mike Mikowski, our Most Valuable, and Rick Content, both All-Conference, are only Sophomores.

Cal: Tony Parks, the Most Improved player, will help next year's team.



Coach And Team Improve Together

Mary: Cathy Slocum did well this season by placing 2nd in Regionals which sent her to State, and 1st in Conference.
Sue: It's easy to see why she got the "Most Valuable" award.
Mary: She is a good example for a young, inexperienced team such as ours.
Sue: We still didn't do too badly though. We took 4th in Conference.
Mary: Being on the team, I could really see some improvements in a lot of people, especially our "Most Improved" player Coleen Frens.
Sue: Next year should be a year to look forward to.

Another Good Season

Neil: Pretty good season, Coach. Nine wins and one loss with that loss being the first in 27 races.

R.T.: After that 3-way tie for first we finished 3rd because of some bad races at the Conference Meet. It was really heartbreaking.

Neil: That 5th at Regionals kept the team from going to State to defend the championship.

R.T.: Randy Alderink's 18th and Jim Lanciaux's 64th place finishes represented the team well. And Randy was voted Most Valuable and Captain while Jim got the Most Improved award.

Neil: Congratulations again, and I'll see you next at Pine River to start the new season.

Girls' Improve In Swimming Talents

Vicki: The girls' swim team did well in taking 6th at the Alma Invitational.
Amy: Yes, they finished the season with a 3-11 record, also.
Vicki: Didn't the team break a lot of the school records this year too?
Amy: Yes, we broke 7 records out of the 11 events.
Vicki: That's not too bad. You should improve quite a bit next year since only one out of the sixteen girls is a senior.

Cagers Fly High

Mole: Have you recovered from basketball season yet?

Chris: More or less. There were times when I wondered whether or not any of the team would make it through the season.

Mole: Yes! Remember the time when that guy from Lowell got vicious with our bus when we beat them!

Chris: Don't forget the time we beat Belding at the buzzer. Those home crowds were absolutely great!

Mole: I know. Next year should be just as good of a year since only five players are graduating.

JV's Jump High

Mike: Hey Dan! Have a good summer but don't forget to play lots of basketball.

Dan: I will. Last season everyone improved so much that next year we're going to be able to beat teams like Cedar Springs and Muskegon Christian.

Mike: Those sure were close games, but being on Varsity will mean not playing as much as we did this year.

Bruce: Do you think that you'll go out for frosh basketball next year, Bob?
Bob: I don't know yet. Our team improved a lot last season and we did win the championship at the tournaments. Leading players for the team were John Swanson, Brad Betts, Mick Hanna, Toni Re, Ted Grund, and Jim Conklin.
Bruce: The practices will probably be harder once we get into the more advanced teams.
Bob: I guess so, but it will probably be worth the hard work.

Swinging To Stardom

Karla: Is Fremont going to have another Invitational for gymnastics?

Diane: Probably. Last season at the first Fremont Invitational, we did pretty well in placing second.

Karla: Every year it seems that the individuals do better, and score higher. Peg Giffen and Diane Current both went to Regionals in three events.

Diane: There were three others who went, too, but it was too bad that we lost to our rivals, Reeths-Puffer. It was so close.

Building Up

Todd: Are you going out for swimming next year, Steve?

Steve: I sure am. Even though this year was a building year for the team, there were still some exciting meets including one at Holland Christian and one at Grand Rapids Creston.

Todd: The bus rides were a riot, too. The time that we got half way to the Ludington Invitational and had to turn around because of the snow was a bummer, though.

Steve: Next year should be a year to look for, since so many of the swimmers have improved, and only two of our swimmers are graduating.

J.H. Swimming

Frank: Our practices sure seemed hard last season.

Joe: Maybe that's because the coach wanted us to improve, which and which the team, as well as the individuals, did.

Frank: I guess he is preparing us for Varsity swimming, so that we'll be able to do well in it when we get there.

Joe: Maybe that should be IF we get there!

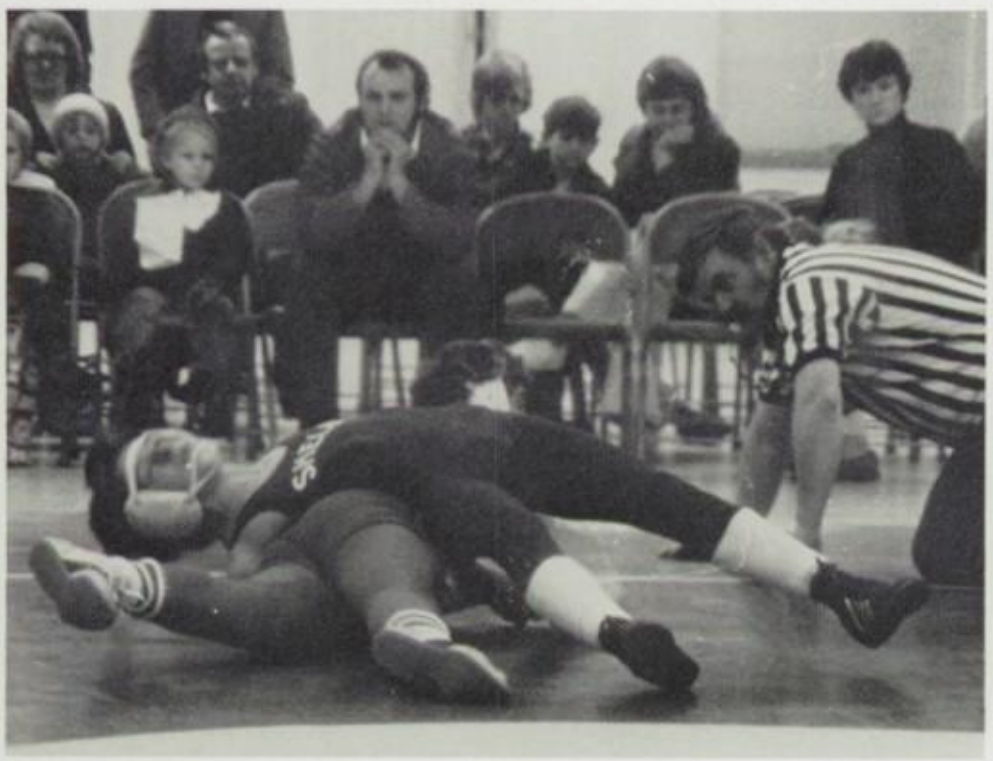
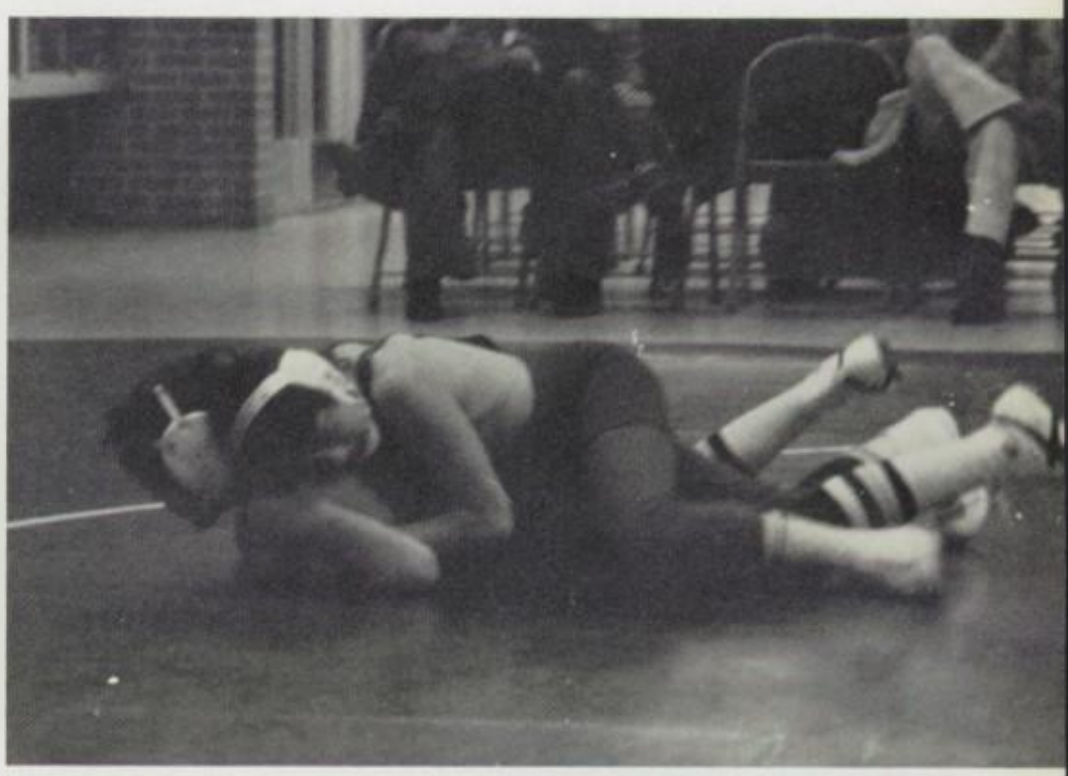
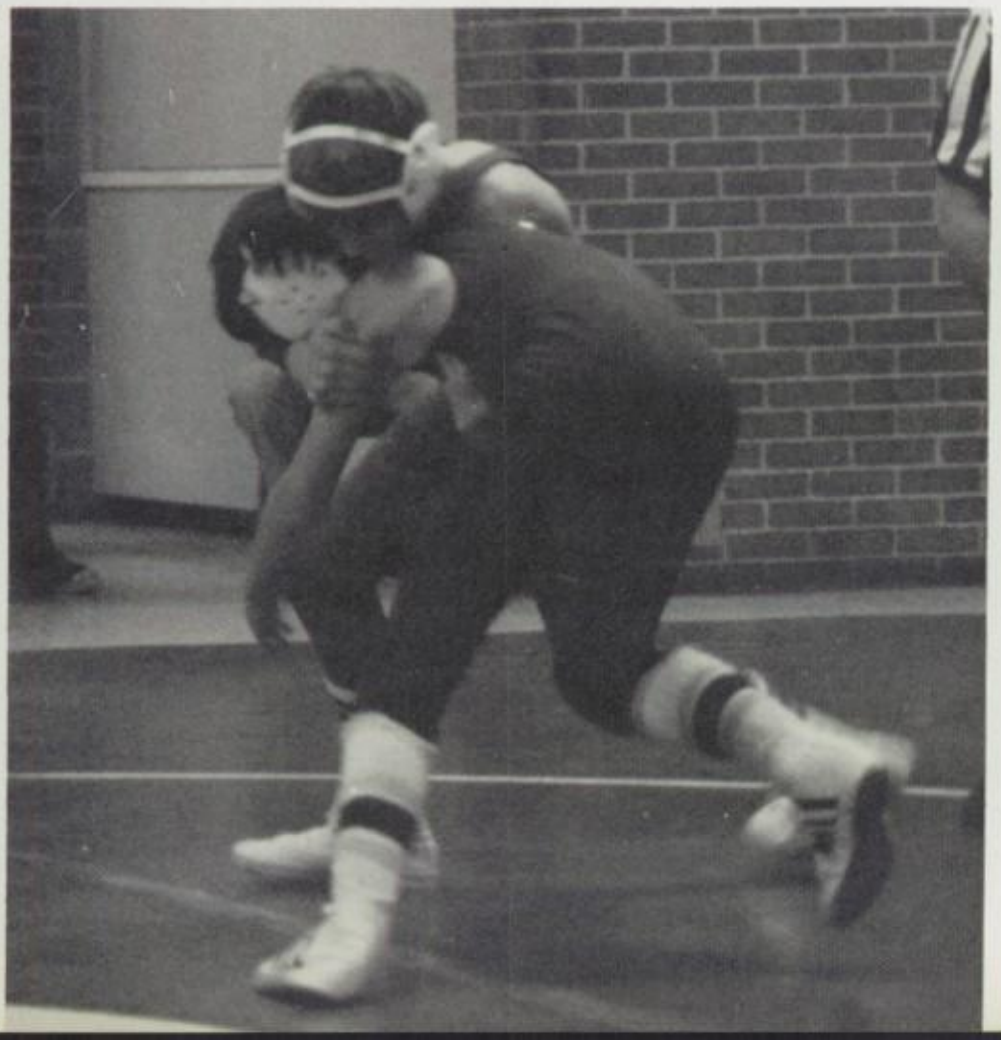
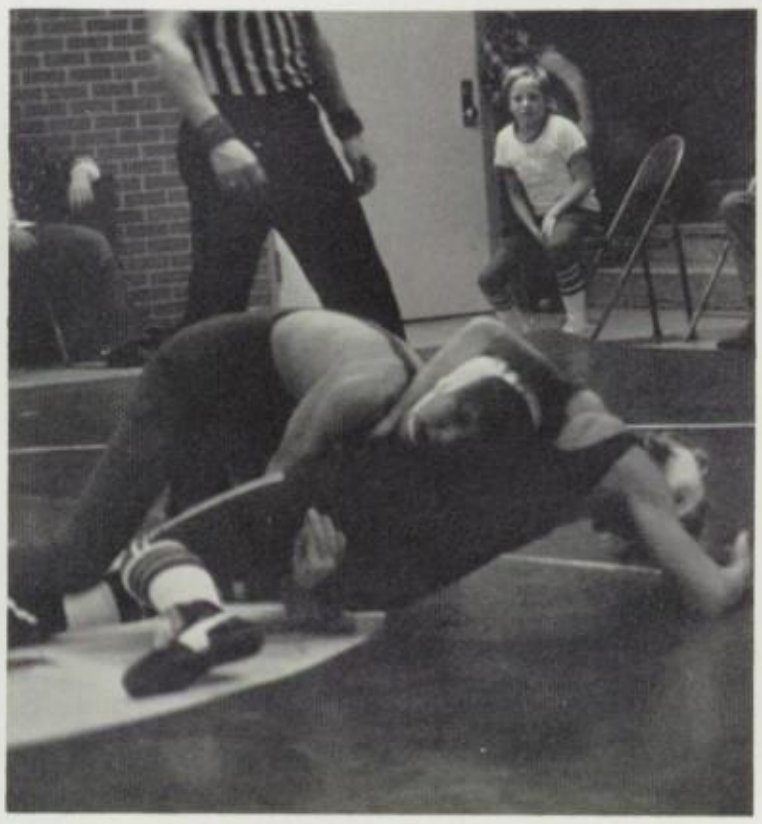
J.H. Wrestling

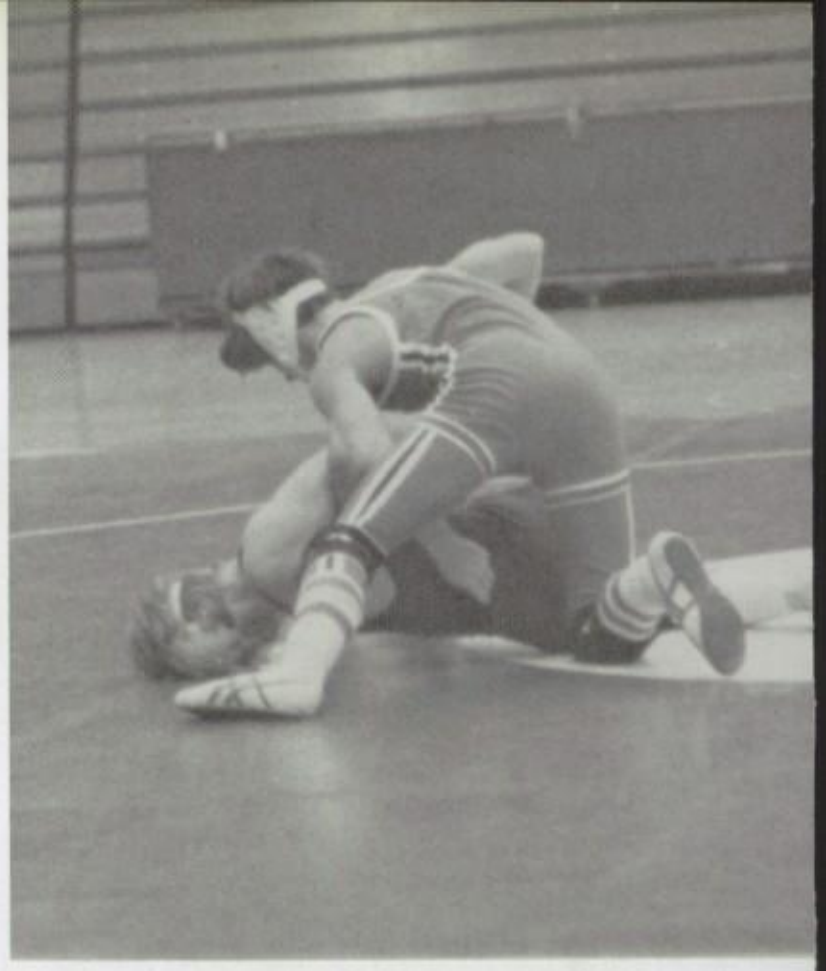
Jack: Have you been watching your weight?
Bruce: No, I really haven't been since wrestling season ended.
Jack: Sometimes I wonder if it's worth it to go out for a sport that takes so much effort.
Bruce: It was a good experience for me to be on the team.











Fan: Despite sickness and lack of depth, the team still finished eighth in the state.

Coach: Of five qualifiers, we had three of them place: Scott Dawe got a 5th place, Jack Church got a 5th place, and Willie Perez got a 6th place.

Fan: I also see that Scott was voted Most Valuable, and Jack got the John Darling Award.

Coach: Next year we should be strong because of two returning All-Staters and some other important individuals.

John: It is too bad that we got to wrestle only exhibition matches during the year.

Tom: That was because we didn't have enough to make up a regular team, but it was very good practical experience.

John: That will really help us for next year.

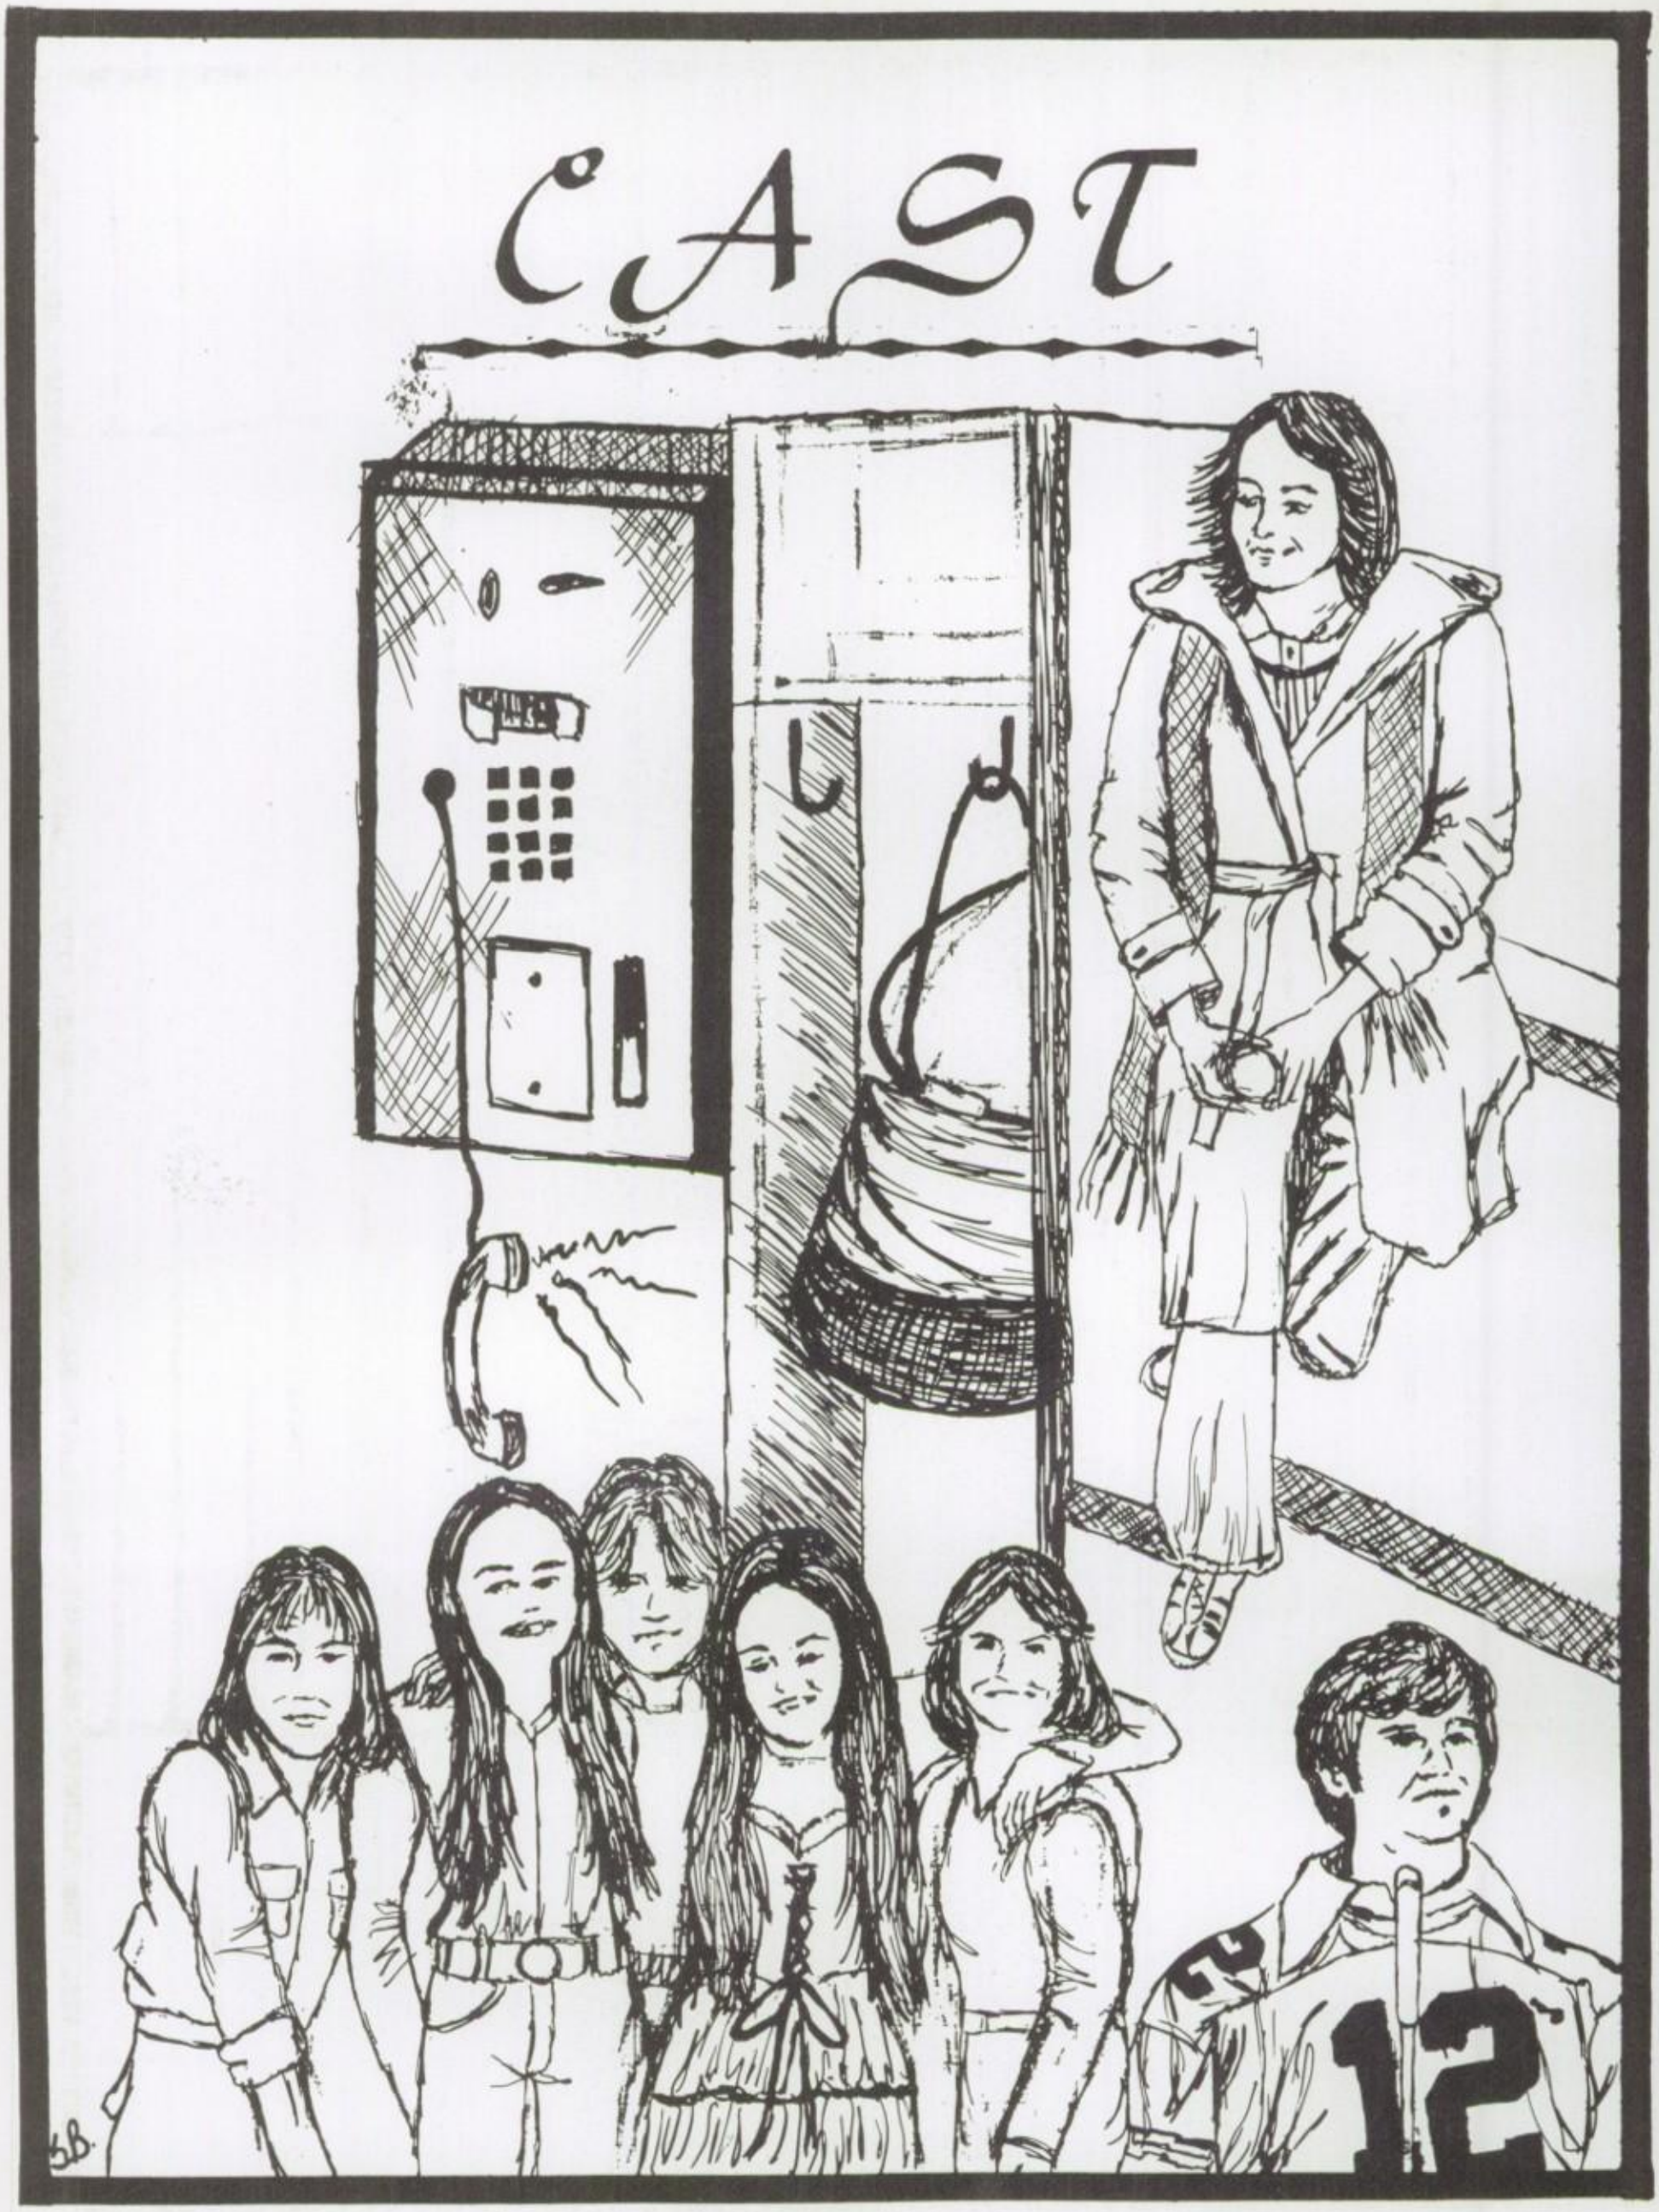
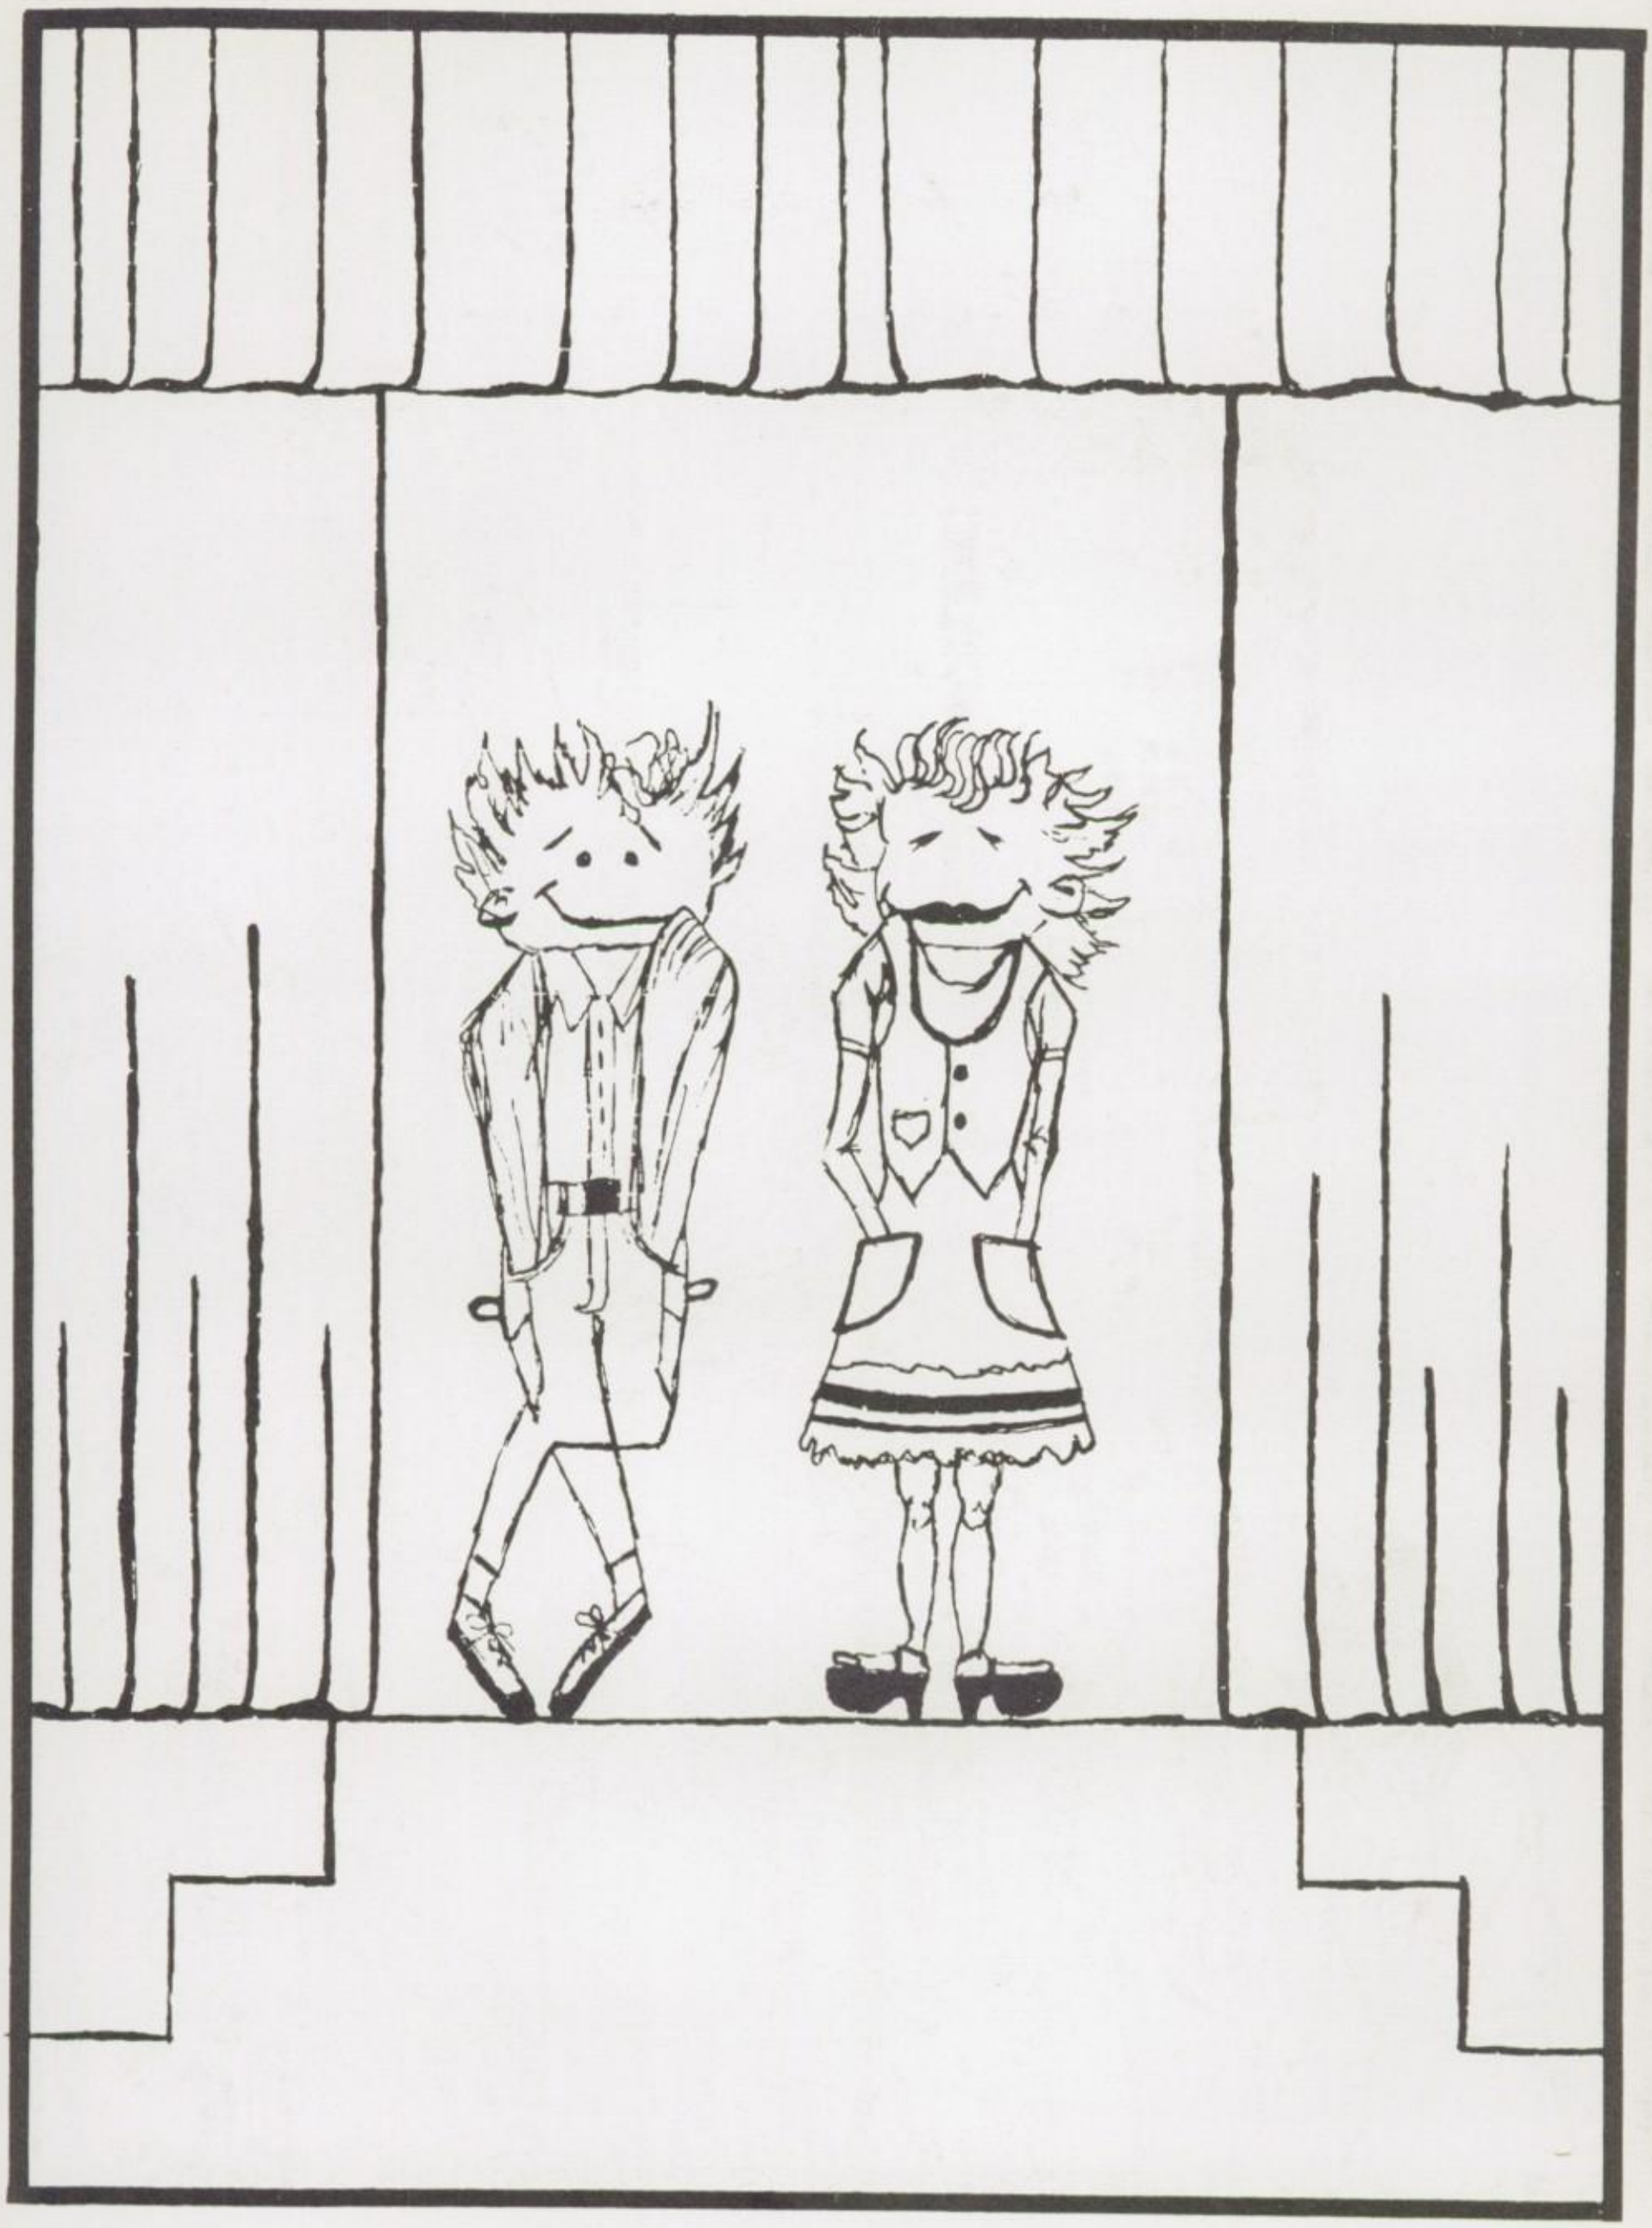
CAST





CCXXXII — CCXXII

Playing the part of the intelligent actors in the play isn't always an easy one. It means more rehearsing, memorizing, and more late nights than any of the other actors. Being the smartest in the class doesn't mean being most successful in life, but it does give some people a head start.

Senior Directory

By the time they have reached the ninth grade, the characters have usually established their goals for the play. They know what they want to get out of the next couple of years even though their script may change during this time. The time that is spent in the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades is spent reaching for these goals by playing the part of the entertainer. But, the senior year is the time when they look back and see if they have reached the goals that were set for themselves. They now have the role of the reviewer.

Thought about college and the future start to become a reality, especially with classes like College English, Government and Soc. As a senior, the year seems to go faster than any other. What are some of the roles seniors play?

During the year, the seniors seem to get all the breaks. Their seniority influences everyone, and even the teachers show more respect toward them. They are the only ones in the school receiving college scholarships and awards, not to mention sen or skip day.

A whole new world develops when you become an eighth grader. Teachers know you by your first name, and not by your sister's name; your locker is by your friend's and not your enemy's; and best of all, you have someone younger than you in the halls.

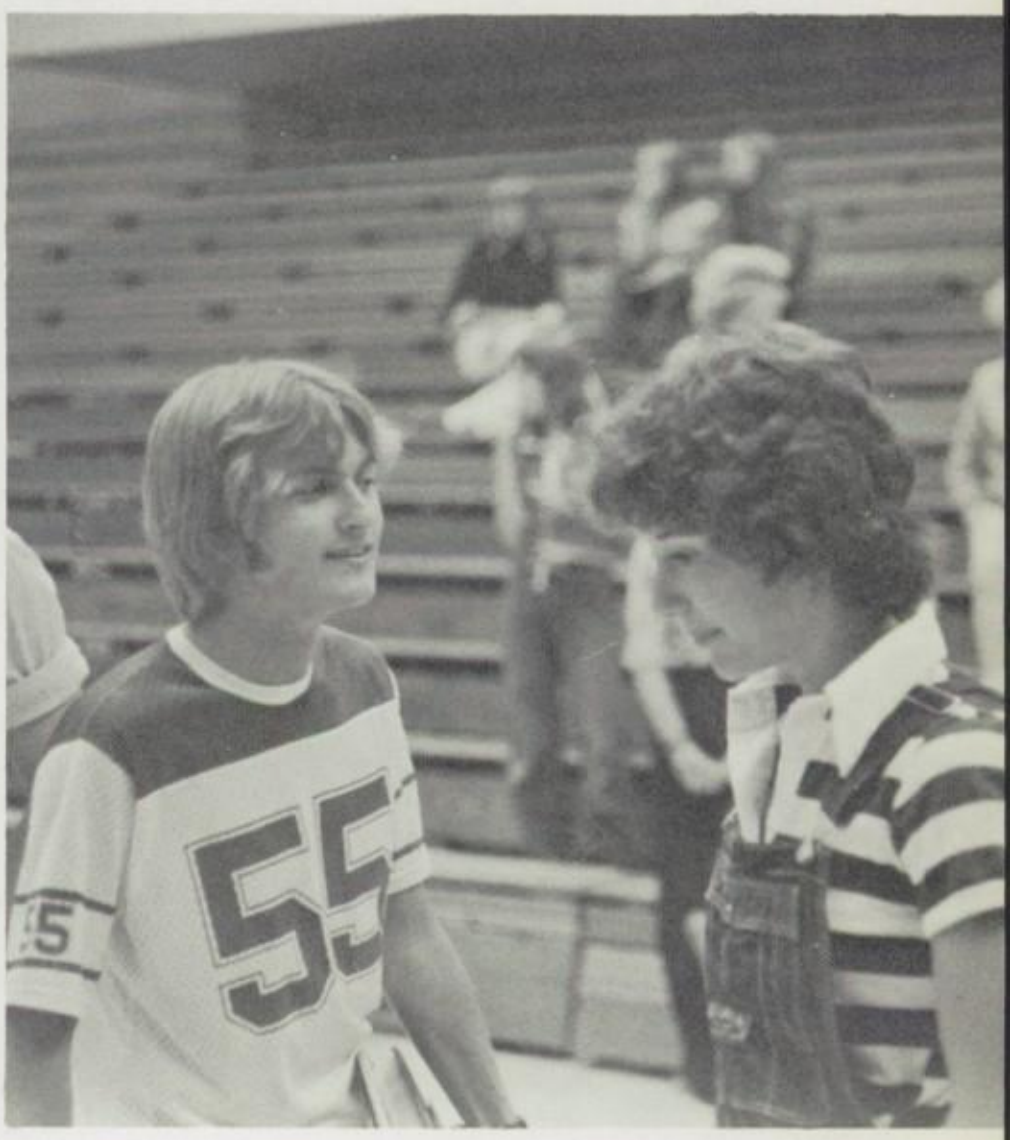
"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer . . ." But this is necessary, for each man must play his own part as an individual, making the world his stage.



He continues on at his own rate, measuring each step he takes according to his theories of what life is all about . . . so "Let him march to his own music, no matter how measured or far away."
